Welcome from Miss WSC 1992-1993 Wendy Bob Dubois, Mistress of Ceremonies

Good evening and welcome to the Miss West Side Club 93-94 pageant. I'm Wendy Bob Dubois, the current reigning Miss West Side Club 92-93. • Some of the highlights of my reign this year were winning the Miss Norristown 92-93 title and placing as first runner-up in the 92-93 Miss Gay Pennsylvania pageant. I also represented the West Side

Club at the Lambda Awards and the Gay/Lesbian/Bisexual Expo. • Running and hosting shows throughout the year have been enjoyable, but also led to a committee seat with the Fund for Living. • I would like to wish all the contestants Good Luck! • To my friends at the West Side Club — Thank You for all your love and support this past year.

The Judges

Coco Vega: from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, Coco is known for her impersonations of Patti LaBelle, Tina Turner and her Las Vegas style costumes and gowns. Coco, a hairdresser by trade, recently began designing and making beaded and sequined evening gowns and custom fitted evening wear.

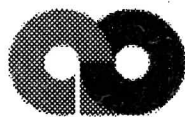

Henri David: born and raised in Philadelphia, Henri is quite the local celebrity. His annual Halloween Party is the longest running event presented by a single individual in the U.S. This year marks its 25th anniversary. Henri is also an award-winning jeweler with a shop at 1329 Pine st. in Philadelphia.

Maryann Doud: For 10 years she performed on stage as an Orientalist and as a member of the El Raks Said Danse Troupe in Philadelphia. She taught dance for several years and was choreographer & stage director for El Raks Said and other solo performers. She also sign interprets choral concerts, short plays, and children's stories and music for the deaf. Maryann is best known in the area for her work in AIDS. She currently serves on the boards of directors of the Fund for Living and of From All Walks of Life.

Bob Sweeny: A bartender in the gay community for the past 11 years, at one time Bob tended bar in all three of Allentown's gay bars at the same time. Presently, he is the manager of the Stonewall Bar in Allentown and has been in that position for the past two years.

About LadyLike Magazine

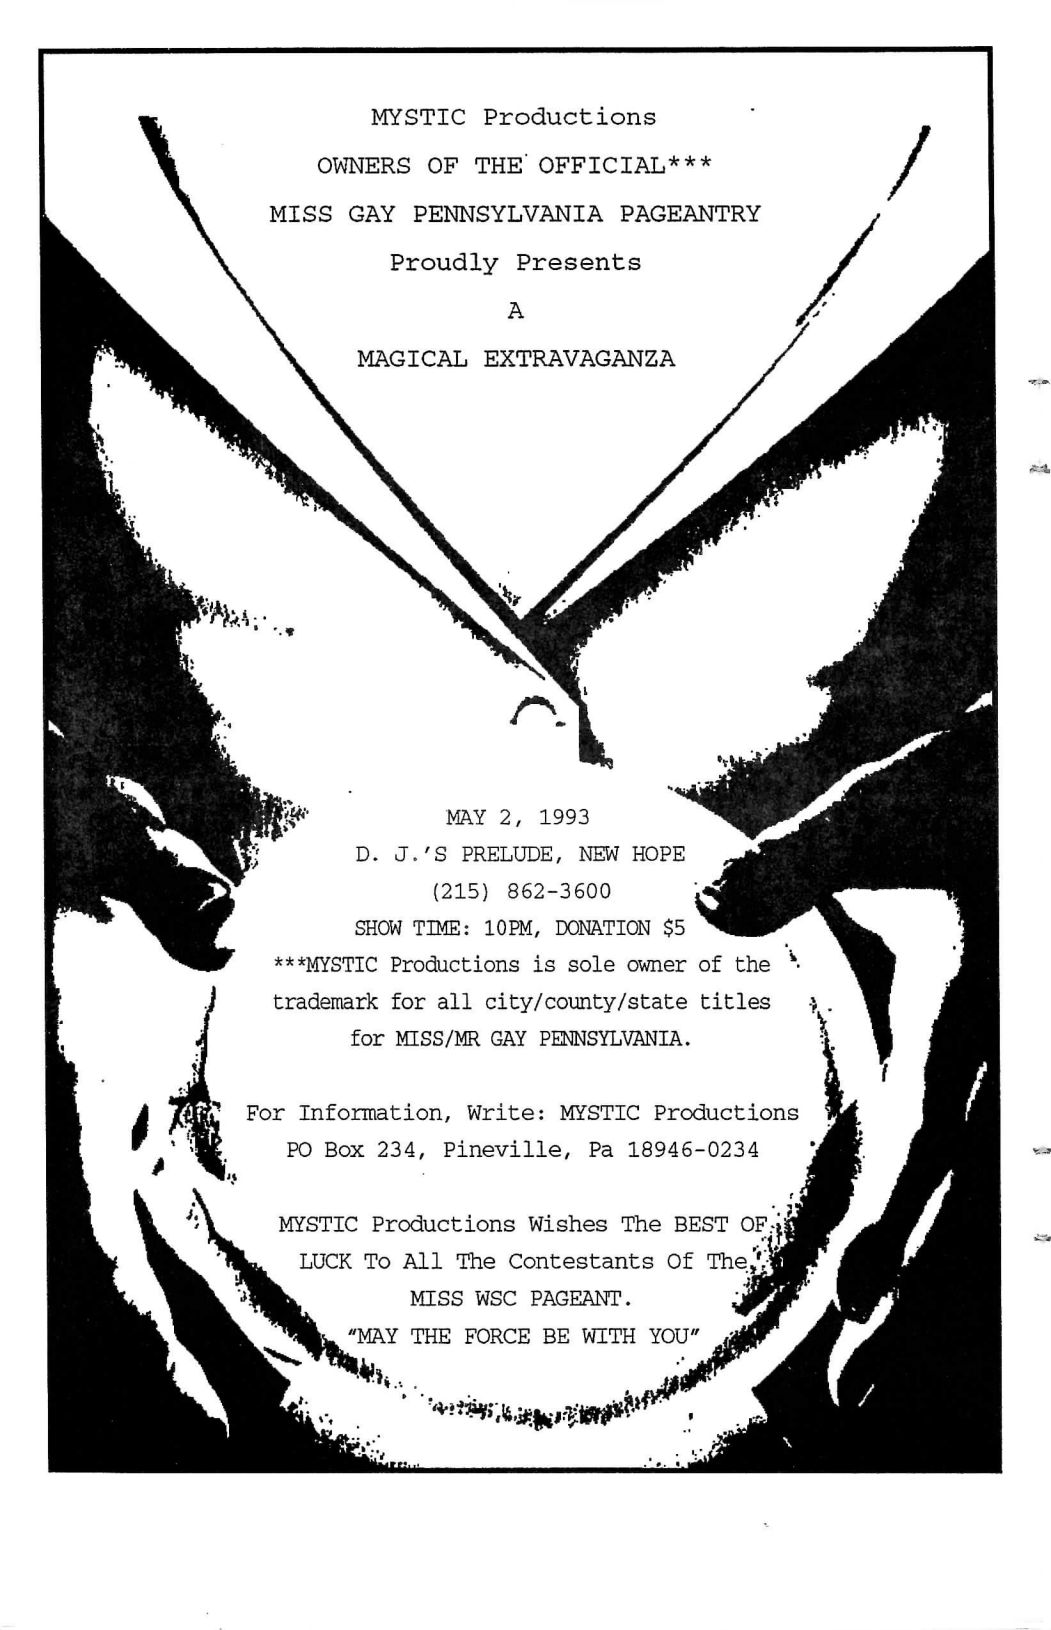

A slick, slightly irreverent publication that deals with drag and crossdressing in a straight-forward manner. It combines color photography with original, useful, entertaining and informative articles.

Now in its fifth year of publication, LadyLike set a standard that other drag and TV mags only wish they could reach.

LadyLike is designed and edited by CDS owner/publisher JoAnn Roberts.

Miss WSC 1993-1994 will be featured in a special photo article to be published in Fall of 1993. Look for it! Better yet, subscribe: four issues for $32.
