Williamson Henderson
Imperial Queens of New York

New York, NY 10011

Dear Williamson,

I want to express my understanding and sincere regret for your disappointment at not being mentioned in a recent fundraising letter referring to the 'Stonewall veterans' appearance at the Central Park rally in June.

We certainly recognize and value your role in the Stonewall Uprising and the building of our community during the past 25 years. We just wanted to second the crowd's cries of "Thank You" for all the veterans as a group and not inadvertently leave someone out of our appreciation.

All of us at the Center are grateful for the bravery and leadership you and all the members of the Imperial Queens represent, both then and now.

Sincerely,

Rhett Wickham
Executive Assistant

GAY ORGANIZATIONS REQUEST / Public G-Notice:

Duly-organized clubs, such as S.D.C., formed in 1986, and survivors of dispersed clubs, such as, G.G.B.C., ended in 1989, should send us the name of the N.Y. Gay-oriented organization, club or association. Include the official year of formation and acronym (such as, "A.V.P." for "Anti-Violence Project" or "G.L.A." for "Gay & Lesbian Americans").

This info must be on "letterhead" of such club, etc., and preferably with documentation, such as, dated flyer, brochure or business card for our research and verification committee.

We are currently composing "N.Y. Gay History #102" of all N.Y. Gay (regardless of duration) organizations, etc., from the 1980's. Then, we will be on to the 1990's with "N.Y. Gay History #103".

Please send such Gay history/culture info to both:

Mr. Williamson Henderson, M.A.

Manhattan, NY 10024

Mr. Richard C. Wandel, M.A.
