

We now must say: "Sisters and Brothers of the World;" the world has shrunk to the size of a peanut with man's great technology; we can no longer tolerate other than the beauty of UNITY IN DIVERSITY to survive on this little green planet.

Through the loving warmth of eachother's sharing, our veils of separateness vanish into the fog it originated in.

-Unity in Diversity
-Our home is your home
-Welcome one and all

-Come love the rest of the world with us.
-Come offer your other half a smile
-Come give joy to yourself
-This is the greatest spiritual practice, to welcome others with all one's heart.
