PRESS RELEASE

The second annual Fantasia Fair will be held in Provincetown, Mass. during the week of October 15-23 inclusive.

Fantasia Fair provides a week-long series of learning and living experiences "en femme" for crossdressers, transgenderists, and transsexuals. It is an educational and social endeavor designed to assist persons who have been involved with crossdressing, gender identity issues and gender role.

Major events include:

- * A Public Symposium and Pot Luck Supper
- * A Fashion/Beauty Course given each morning during the week
- * The "Ages of Fashion" Ball and Buffet
- * A workshop for wives and girlfriends of crossdressers and transgenderists
- * Demonstrations of Cosmetic Usage
- * Electrolysis - theory and practice
- * Awards Banquet and Cotillion
- * Hair and Wig Styling and Care
- * A Fashion Show
- * Work opportunities program

Fantasia Fair Ltd. is part of the TV Outreach Program of New England, which serves as a referral resource for much of the Northeast United States.

-more-

The TV Outreach Program offers the following services to the community:

1. Speakers for lectures, seminars and workshops on the subject of transvestism, transgenderism and transsexualism.
2. Information and referral for transvestites, transgenderists and transsexuals and their spouses and families.
3. Publications--Proceedings of two recent conferences on alternate sex and gender lifestyles, reprints of pertinent articles, and a quarterly newsletter.

Interested persons are cordially invited to attend some of the major events. Donations will be accepted for these.
