

Milwaukee Water Tower

The red and white tube

10-29-86

NORTH POINT WATER TOWER
Milwaukee, Wisconsin

The 175 foot Victorian Gothic tower was constructed in 1873 and was a part of the original Water Works serving the City of Milwaukee. Its purpose was to absorb pulsations of reciprocating steam-driven engines in a standpipe within the tower.

finally arrived this morning!

The item on your book is in the Sept. '86 newsletter of the Gay Lesbian Historical Society (your own group!) I had it packed inside the poster. It was up near 70° yesterday lovely! Tonight it is down in the 40s and not comfortable. Ernest is in love with Mike Moore a hispanic looking guy really E M's type for sure.
