

I am writing to ask your kind permission to reproduce the photograph listed below in a scholarly work I am preparing entitled, Transgender Warriors: A History of Resistance, hereafter called the Volume. Transgender Warriors is a history of the struggles of people who challenged the sex/gender construct in their societies. Publication is tentatively schedule for spring, 1996 by Beacon Press.

Beacon is planning an initial hardcover printing of 7,500 copies at an estimated price of $24.00. Beacon Press is a non-profit publisher operating under the auspices of the Unitarian Universalist Association. Beacon has enjoyed a long and distinguished history of publishing books of lasting literary and scholarly merit.

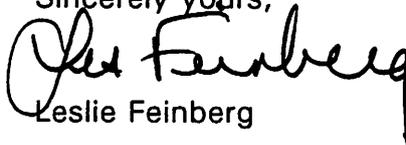

I am requesting non-exclusive, world rights to include the photograph in this Volume and in all future editions of it, clothbound and paperbound, and for use in publicity and promotion of the Volume. I am requesting either a positive transparency or a print. If the original is no longer available, may I make a photographic reproduction of the print in your volume?

If your rights to this photograph is confined to the United States only, or if copyright is now controlled by the artist, please inform me of the name and address of the person or firm to whom I should write to obtain these permissions.

Please instruct me as to the exact wording of the copyright notice and acknowledgement you want me to use. Otherwise, I'll use a conventional form of acknowledgement and cite artist, title of print, publisher and date.

I would consider your permission an important contribution at this early stage of an emerging transgender pride movement.

Sincerely yours,

Leslie Feinberg

Photograph:

Title/Description:

Potographer/Artist:

Date of Publication:

The above request is approved with the understanding that full credit will be given to the source.

Approved by:

Date: