the vergenty during the restrait

UTDE & BEHMAN'S THEATER.

What is known as Davene's Colossal Allied Attractions, an exceptionally excellent organization of specialty performers, begins a week's engagement at Messrs. Hyde & Behman's Theater to-morrow evening. The acrobatic trio, Mme. Lotto, Mme. Margerald and W. M. Davene, head the list, which embraces among its supporting membership Miss Ella Wesner, male impersonator and vocalist; Miss St. George Hussey, Irish character actress; Mons. and Madame Villion and Sig. Mondoza, byciclists; Sheehan and Coyne, Irish comedians; Miss Alice Gleason, soubrette and vocalist: Hailen and Hart, operatio specialists; Herbert and Joe Cawthorn, eketch artists, and Boyd and Sarefield, eccentric song and dance performers. The Irish comedy, "McManus' Trip Abroad," winds up the ontertainment. Matinces on Tuesday and Thursday will be given as usual.

NATUTAV THE ATED