SAN DIEGO SILVER JUBILEE CORONATION

by Countess Tedi DeBarre

Festivities began on Thursday evening with a Weenie Roast hosted by Empress Mimi of Buffalo, who grilled her infamous Buffalo weenies. The event was held in the garden of #1 Fifth Avenue, a bar in the Hillcrest section of the city. It was a great place to meet and greet old and new friends, and everyone had a good time.

Following this feast, we all headed to the Mustang Spa for the Mr. Nude San Diego contest. A couple of hundred fully dressed (not drag) gay men at a bath house is something else to see. As were the contestants. Friday began for some of us with a little wig shopping (great buys), followed by the annual trip to Tijuana about him) were crowned by MaMa in her usual style. She looked as regal as ever.

On Sunday morning we all attended where at Mike's Place, our own Empress X Ran-Dee was "crowned" Empress I of Ensenada (with the help of mucho pesos). On the return trip, MaMa announced that no one needed to "dress" for the out-of-town show at the Brass Rail bar. Many performers did not. But as we all know, New York has class. Ran-Dee and Steven looked divine and did a wonderful rendition of "Sue Me". Coco appeared to be having a great time !!!!!

On Saturday evening, sixteen members of the Imperial Court of New York attended "The Silver Jubilee Coronation Ball" Held in the packed Grand Ballroom of the historic U.S. Grant Hotel in downtown San Diego. Our current and past monarchs were invited by Their Most Imperial Majesties, Emperor XIV Tone Puente and Empress XXIV Maya to do a Royal Command Performance. And they certainly did (even if there was a glitch in the sound system).

The presentation of the New York Court to the monarchs was most impressive (even without a runway). Emperor and Empress in full coronation regalia and all Court members in white, gold and black. All members present walked; even our two new members: Princess "Lydia" Austin and La Grande Princess Royale "Lianna". The newly elected monarchs Empress XXV Roxy Bleau and Emperor XXV Noel (ask Billie Ann

The Victory & Awards Brunch held at Tidbits. It was a delicious Mexican buffet (I went out and bought three dozen bagels, cream cheese and butter). At the brunch the Imperial Court of New York was honored with an award for the "Most Regal Court Walk". The trophy was a limited edition porcelain "Cinderella's Coach" from the Franklin Mint, which we shall cherish. Steven and Ran-Dee were also honored as Best Out-of-State Emperor and Empress. Our own Princess Royale Panzi was named first and only (so far) granddaughter to Jose I, The Widow Norton. We all chatted some and said our goodbye's. Sunday evening's scheduled event was the "Mr. & Miss Gay California Pageant" which was attended by a group from New York. A few of us spent a quiet evening in the hotel's dining room having a wonderful dinner and relaxing.

AN

by Princess Lita Austin

The Gay Men's Health Crisis held its annual "Morning Party" in spite of the rumors that they were not going to support it. It was a gloriously hot day and of course, so was the parade of scantily clad men. The theme this year was something akin to "Under the Big Top" and they decorated the beach with circus posters, colorful tents, bunches of balloons, and even more hot gorgeous men! A true carnival atmosphere prevailed.

I will say that the thirty minute "trek" from the Pines ferry to the location of the party was quite an experience. I say this because I did not do drag, (Thank God), but for those who did...my wig is off to you girls. Perspire, glisten, glow, moisten...call it what you will but these girls were "sweatin' like whores in church," and managed to stay glamorous even while they were doling out the water!

Prince Tom DeConza was the Imperial liaison and Official Host for this event and took very good care of his "Guys and Dolls." Watch for the "Party Talk" interview with Emperor Steven, Empress Ran-Dee and La Grande Princess Royale Gianna on the Gay Cable Network.

All in all it was an event that I would urge other members to participate in; when the boys pharmaceuticals kick in, they certainly "depend on the kindness of strangers."

"Get 'em while they're hot," I always say. AN

"LIPS" OPEN WIDE:

by Zondra Foxx/condensed by Kitty Fouché

The new drag theme restaurant, Lips (2 Bank Street), opened in a gala preview bash on 8 August at 8 PM. What a night! Cabs and limos disgorging Celebes! Flouncing entrances galore! Fabulous femmes of various sexes! Hot boys! (And, boy, was it hot inside, wooooooo!) The perfect midsummer event to banish urban ennui and bring out the scenemakers. The press was omnipresent: "pose, pose, strut, strut, interview, interview." This queen had almost no time to consume the succulent snacks and imbibe the circulating Stoli cocktails.

Drag memorabilia are everywhere here, with more to come. If you have anything you wish to donate or lend, bring it in:

excess is the essence of drag. On two walls there are probably 100-plus 8" x 10" pics of loyal divas and it seemed that most were present at the party. Vitrines display exotic shoes and accessories. A marvelous mannequin of Ms. Understood looms above the stairs to the lower level. On that floor a small stage acts as a showplace for the Imperial Court (of New York) with photos of the College of Monarchs, a magnificent crown and other imperial regalia. Pictures and objects are everywhere and video monitors run tapes of drag interest.

Everybody, almost, was there! The ICNY was well represented. Empress Ran-Dee and Emperor Steven, both in royal finery, headed the list, with Empresses emeriti

Coco LaChine, Champagne, and Sybil Bruncheon busily perambulating. Margery Dunne and Brenda Starr, the Stoli girls, were overworked, but kept their cool. Further Court luminaries dressed to thrill were Anne-Tique, Tammi Racine, Chiclet, and authoress Zondra Foxx herself. Courtiers in male style included Tom Hansen, Johnny Cella, Tom deConza and others whose names have slipped my drink-addled brain.

The warmth of 8,000,000 closely packed bodies, specially upstairs, caused the crowd to spill out onto the sidewalk for the cool, fresh air, but everyone was well behaved, as people in evening gowns tend to be. Passing tourists and locals alike could not help stopping and chatting, marveling at the exotic sight. After midnight things were winding down and we left in our pumpkin coach, sated, elated and saturated with the glamour of it all. AN

by Princess Lita Austin

It was like watching a scene from "An Officer and A Gentleman!" exclaimed one excited onlooker as the Emperor and Empress led the procession to the Ice Palace.

This year's "White Party" on Fire Island was one of unparalleled glamour and glitz. Dripping in rhinestones, Mod-Acrylic fiber piled high atop our heads and outfits ranging from sleek and stylish to trampy (that would be me!) the Court made a stunning appearance! Not only did the girls (and I use this term loosely!) look spectacular, but the men turned it "out" also. Sashes were de'riquer and so was wearing every pin, Court or otherwise, you owned.

The evening began with cocktails at the Island Club in the Pines which was decorated tastefully with plenty of men in their "Calvins". After tanking up at the club it was time for the procession to begin. We all paired up, like on Noah's Ark, and the male escorts held their "glow rods" in their hands (not what you're thinking!!!) to light the way down to the ferry. Applause, applause...and Empress X

Empress Ran-Dee waved from their balcony and proclaimed "Let the party begin!"

Special thanks go to Jeffrey Wallach and crew, who turned the downtown Grove area into "Camelot" for the evening. AK

Ran-Dee christened the new boat for its journey to the Grove.

Once on board all sorts of dancing and mayhem resumed. Most of us drag queens headed down below for "beauty reasons". Miss New York City - Leeza Monet, however, braved the upper decks.

All I can say is..."wig in a blender"! As the boat docked we all got ready for the adoring fans we were about to greet.

Bella, looking wonderfully sexy, in a long flowing white chiffon creation and red vixen hair, greeted the Emperor and Empress and led the procession to the Ice Palace where she presented them with the key to Cherry Grove. Looking regal and elegant, Emperor Steven and
