

SEX-SWAP SHOCK BY A CHURCH ORGANIST

Vicar sacks 'Helen'

By SUN REPORTER

CHURCH organist Nigel Gee has been sacked . . . for turning into a girl called "Helen."

He got his marching orders for abandoning his wife and three young sons and starting treatment to change his sex.

The vicar did not want the Doctor of Music arriving at church dressed as a woman.

But "Helen" yesterday branded the decision as "hypocritical and un-Christian."

He said: "The reaction I have got from some people — particularly the church—has disgusted me.

"Why am I being barred from doing the job I love? I could understand it if it was the vicar turning into a woman."

Divorce

"Helen", who is undergoing sex-change operations and hormone treatment, is being divorced by his wife, Margaret.

The couple had been married for ten years and lived with their sons — aged four, six and eight — in Sunningdale Road, Wallasey, Merseyside.

"Helen" teaches at the local St Hugh's Roman Catholic High School and was organist at St Nicholas C of E Church.

Future

The vicar, the Rev John Bentley, would not comment yesterday.

Wirral Council's education committee is now debating "Helen's" future as a teacher.

"Helen," who says it is "rude" to ask a lady's age, said: "I get no kicks out of this . . . but my hormones dictate that I become a woman"
