

Don't Deny Yourself

The pleasure you will find in the next

Sunday Inquirer

You will find it the prettiest message, ever sent out by good-old St. Valentine. It is sure to be a treat for every member of every family. Don't disappoint the little ones, but give them a chance to earn a

Piano or Model Yacht

In the New Puzzles for Children That You Will Find in The

Sunday Inquirer Magazine

The good old Quakers rapidly disappearing from Philadelphia, where not long ago they were the controlling spirit.

Young Bessie Potter, the most remarkable sculptor of the age, and some pictures of her wonderful work.

Black Bart, the most daring highwayman ever seen in America, is said to have suddenly turned up again in California. His career is a very interesting one.

Fon Chong Mai, the highest priced Chinese actor, is said to have decided to act a few pieces in Philadelphia.

Overdressed New York women dictate new fads and begin a regular skirmish after men who are supposed to be social lions.

Launching of the biggest vessel afloat, a steamer which will be almost a veritable floating city.

Recent practical jokes of college students at all of the biggest colleges in the country. Some daring deeds.

Chauncey Depew as he looked in war time.

Fishing on horseback.

An electrical barber shop.

How a widow escaped the suttee.

American Indians increasing.

Remarkable socialistic colonies.

How Lincoln managed his generals.

How Holland's Queen brought tears to the eyes of royalty.

Stylish ladies at a bull-fight.

Discovery of a rare and strange mummy.

America's show of horseless carriages.

English Mormons lose their leader.

The new books and magazines.

The Call Boy's chat about two new plays.

Unique club to which only old men are admitted.

Louis Napoleon bobs up again in France.

Facts and fancies for stamp collectors.

Museum freaks and their lives.

There are two kinds of boomerangs.

A lobster that is said to fly.

Puzzle No. 2 for boys and girls.

A page of puzzles by Sam Loyd.

A page of society news.

A page of comic cuts.

*There's a World of Beauty in the Colored Section
Just Look at Some of the Contents*

THE ADVENT OF LENT—In a beautiful page of color Penrhyn Stanlaws depicts the banishment of the American girl for forty days.

THE LATEST THEATRICAL SUCCESSSES IN AMERICA—Beautiful half-tones of the famous plays "Za-Za" and "Nathan Hale."

HORSELESS CARRIAGES—Half-tones of automobiles, showing the latest inventions for the banishment of man's best friend.

$500.00 PICTURE PUZZLES—Here is a chance to learn with profit about the counties of the Middle Atlantic States.

THE CAKE WALK IN JUNGLE-VILLE—Bert Cobb has one of his best half pages, showing the queer antics of the funny animals.

Order Your Next

Sunday Inquirer To-day