OUTREACH INSTITUTE

The Human Outreach and Achievement Institute was founded in Boston in 1975 to foster a better understanding of cross-dressing and related gender issues. In 1977 it was chartered as a not-for-profit corporation in Massachusetts. Contributions are tax deductible under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Code.

Under the leadership of Ariadne Kane the Institute has developed a number of important programs:

- The Outreach Professional Evaluation and Referral Network (OPERN)
- Seminars and workshops on Human Sexuality and Gender Issues for the helping professional
 - A quarterly newsletter
 - A national directory
 - A book and publications service
 - FANTASIA FAIR

FOR MAKING FANTASIA FAIR 1983—

AN EXPERIENCE TO REMEMBER

FANTASIA FAIR IS YOU

AUNT DOROTHY

Dear Aunt Dorothy,
What is the difference between a TS and a TV?

Ann Nonymous

Dear Ann
“A TS feels like a woman trapped in a man’s body—and hates it. A TV, when dressed, feels like a man trapped in a woman’s body—and loves it.”

Dear Aunt Dorothy,
What do you do about pantyhose that keeps rolling down?

Chic from Chicago

Dear Chic,
A sharp hit across his knuckles usually stops his game.

Dear Aunt Dorothy,
Your sarcastic tone and caustic wit would lead me to believe you might be related to the famed Dorotheia Dix. Please tell me it ain’t so.

Skeptical reader

Dear Skeptical,
Dorotheia Dix, my learned and older (what, older than you, Aunt Dorothy) friends tell me, was, in fact, a conglomeration of men hiding under a pseudonym. I tried one on, but I couldn’t find a pseudonym to fit me, so I went the whole hog and donned panties, bra, dresses—the lot. What you have here is the real thing—like it or leave it.

Aunt Dorothy,

(1) How does one go about breaking the ice about being a TV/TG with a girl (especially younger girls—I’m 26 years old)?

(2) How can you tell if a girl would be receptive to a TG?

(3) Which kind of girls are receptive and accommodating to TGs?

(4) Can you legally work while living a TG lifestyle?

(5) How and when do you break it to employers that you’re male?

Vanessa

Dear Vanessa,

(1) I can see you are trying to baffle me with the curse of the Paraculture—symbols. Are you a TV or a TG or is a TV/TG unable to make up his mind, and if so is it fair to want to involve the young girl (is she a GG or a RW?). In any case, if you don’t know, I think the relationship would be N.B.G.

(2) Look up her genes.

(3) In this case, probably those who are BFs.

(4) Yes I can—If I live in glorious B.C.

(5) You do it on the Q.T.

Dear Auntie Dorothy,
When I wear my black velvet choker, my voice sounds like Joan Sutherland’s. What causes this?

Sometime Soprano

Dear Sometimes,
A choker should be worn around the neck—shift it.

FANTASIA FAIR IS FOR FUN

"The result is euphoria and the personal satisfaction of sharing your dreams and fantasies with wonderful friends and sisters."

AWARDS BANQUET

MAXINE M.
Assistant Chairperson

"On the final evening of the Fair we have a very special formal Awards Banquet. It's our night for festive activities and to acknowledge and honor those who have made a unique contribution to Fantasia Fair and the Outreach Institute."

Next, I studied with the teachers of androgyny,
Who left me as confused as I could possibly be;
But from all their verbiage I gleaned onegem,
The most explicit statement I could get from them:
 “If a premium you’ll place on ambiguity,
 You can be whatever gender that you want to be!”

The apostles of simplicity said, “I am me,”
Which definitely savored of tautology;
And disciples of our Swami’s Oriental lore
Were receptive to the Yang and Yin as never before.
 But such receptiveness was fine with me;
 It entitled me to be just what I wanted to be!

Then I met a male woman who explained to me
How semantic exegesis works to set us free:
“Just distinguish sex from gender and you’ll certainly rejoice,
For, though sex is fixed, your gender is a matter of choice!”
 And I was delighted with this sophistry;
 It legitimized the woman that I wanted to be!

Now, transgenderists all, whoever you may be,
If you don’t want to go through all this hassle, like me,
If you want self-fulfillment without going to school,
Then be careful to be guided by this golden rule:
 Just accept any paradox uncritically,
 And you all can be the gender that you want to be!

*To the Fan-Fair participants and the people of P-town,
I was amazed and gratified by the reception given to me when I performed this at the Follies. I have never performed in public before, and I owe it to the support of the marvelous people at Fan-Fair and in P-town that I was able to muster the confidence to do so. This was my real “learning and growth experience.”*

Elaine

“Elaine, you’ve never performed in public?”

“No, never”.

“What, never?”

“Well—hardly ever!”

A TRANSGENDERIST'S LEARNING AND GROWTH EXPERIENCE

by Elaine Willey

This poem was promoted by my impression that the TV-TS community views gender change as something that can be accomplished much more readily and freely than the general public would think possible. The poem is based on, and set to the music of, the song "When I Was a Lad" from H.M.S. Pinafore by Gilbert and Sullivan (those who know the original may see why this is an appropriate choice). In performance, Lines 4-6 each stanza should be repeated in the pattern of the original (445656) so as to fit the music (though the repeat of Line 4 could be omitted).

When I was young, I thought I'd be
A boy or girl—I wasn't sure, you see;
Then one day I dressed up in my mother's clothes,
And what transpired then—oh goodness knows!
 But that kind of turn-on so excited me,
 I was certain that a girl was what I wanted to be!

So I went to the doctors, and they said to me:
"You must realize anatomy is destiny;
The change you desire is beyond our power,
But we offer reassignment—it's the treatment of the hour!
 Put your faith in us, and for a suitable fee,
 You'll become whatever gender that you want to be!"

Well, I didn't have the confidence and didn't have the fee,
And I thought I'd better see if this was right for me;
So I went out crossdressed in a public place,
And not a single person said a word—to my face!
 And so long as no one ever challenged me,
 I was sure I was the girl that I had longed to be!

I grew so skillful I was asked to be
In a TV club of great authority;
They all went out on the street and they didn't pass,
But explained to me the reason for their marvelous brass:
 "Just keep your skirt down—and if nobody can see,
 They'll all think you are the gender you pretend to be!"
