GOD KEPT HIS PROMISE

"LET ME GIVE"

*I don't know how long I'll live, but while I live, Lord let me give
Some comfort to someone in need by smile or not — kind word or deed
And let me do what e'er I can to ease things for my fellow man;
I want naught but to do my part to "lift" a tired or weary heart,
To change folks' frowns to smiles again — then I will not have lived in vain
And I'll not care how long I'll live if I can give and give and give.*

ALL IS WELL

Looking back through the years,
there were joys and some tears.
There were losses and gains,
there was laughter and some pains.
Days of labor were long.
Grace from God kept us strong.
At the close of life's day,
shepherd hands will lead the way.
All is well, all is well, all is well.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The family gratefully acknowledges the prayers, kind deeds and acts of sympathy expressed to us through cards, flowers and visits during the time of bereavement. They are a great source of strength and comfort.

May God Bless You,
The Family
