

Sixto Jesus Navarro, Jr. [above]
God sent down his angels to guide Sixto Jesus Navarro, Jr. (aka Bambi) to his arms. Born Aug. 19, 1960, entered into rest Aug. 9, 1996. Bambi will surely be missed. He was not only a bartender for many years at The Crew and at El Jardin, he was also a friend. He not only served you drinks, he also took care of you, going out of his way to see that you were safe and sound. When he was asked to be in a benefit show for whatever cause, he was there. The good Lord has His reasons.

He is survived by his mother, Refugia G. Carreon; father, Sixto J. Navarro, Sr.; sisters, Mary L. Navarro, Cynthia A. Montes, Ruth G. Paine and Gerry M. Paine; brothers, Jimmy R. Navarro, Albert Paine III; six nieces; one nephew; and numerous aunts and uncles.

God, do we miss him. Till we meet again....
