

Fantasia Fair Newsletter. Friday, October 16 through Sunday, October 18, 1981

NEWSLETTER

This is the official Fantasia Fair newsletter, which will be issued daily, except on weekends. It provides updated schedules and other information, which may differ from that in the three newsletters you received prior to arrival. Please read this newsletter carefully every day. You will find that communication is very difficult in Provincetown--there are no phones in the rooms, and the fair is spread out over several different hotels. You will need to consult the newsletter to be aware of daily activities.

Information which you want to appear in the newsletter should be submitted no later than 3:00 PM the day before it is to appear. Information may be left at the desk at Gifford House, or may be given either to Merissa Sherrill Lynn, the fair coordinator (Gifford House, Room 14) or to Elaine [REDACTED], the newsletter editor (Crown and Anchor, Room 111). All information in writing please.

Please save all copies of the newsletter. Some information will not be repeated.

The newsletter will be delivered to your room late at night on the day preceding its effective date. In the case of very late (and essential) information, a supplementary 3x5 card may be included (hopefully this will not be necessary).

HOUSEMOTHERS

Each residence is assigned a housemother who will help you with any problems regarding your living accommodations. Please see her for anything relating to hotel maintenance (changing light bulbs, making repairs, etc.). Do not go to Merissa about these matters--she will simply refer you to your housemother. Housemothers for the residences are as follows (note, for possible future reference, the abbreviations of the residences, enclosed in parentheses):

Gifford House (GH)	Jamie [REDACTED]	Room not yet assigned
Crown and Anchor (CA)	Michelle [REDACTED]	Room 114
Hargood House (HG)	Janice [REDACTED]	Apt. 10
Chicago House (CH)	Delores Carter	Room not yet assigned

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

The daily schedule will normally appear at the beginning of the newsletter, where the events will simply be listed, not described. Descriptions of the events will appear elsewhere, perhaps in previous newsletters. The events for the weekend are as follows:

Friday 16*	2PM to 9PM	Registration	Gifford House
	6:30PM to 9PM	Cocktail Party	Gifford House
Saturday 17:	10:30AM	Orientation	Gifford House
	1:30PM	Cosmetic clinic	Gifford House
	2PM to 4PM	Speech Seminar	Gifford House
	7PM	Dinner	Gifford House
Sunday 18	9AM to 12PM	Breakfast	Pronto (Restaurant)
	11AM	Church	Universalist Church
	1PM to 4PM	Androgyny Awareness workshop, Part 1	Gifford House
	5PM to 7PM	Cocktail Party	Cut Above (Hair Styling Shop)

The locations of the Pronto and the Cut Above are given in your Directory of Advertisers. The Universalist Church is across the street from the Crown and Anchor.

Note that there is a $10.00 fee for the Speech Seminar. Detailed information on the content of the clinic and seminars is not currently available. Church attendance is, of course, optional, but you are very welcome at the Universalist Church.

ID CARD

Carry your ID card with you at all times. You will need it for admission to fair events.

RECREATION ACTIVITIES

Anyone interested in bicycle riding, horseback riding, golf, tennis, dune buggy rides, or whale watching trips should contact Rachia [REDACTED] or leave your name and room number at the registration desk (use the sign-up sheet). We may be challenged by the gay women of Provincetown to a ping-pong and/or pool tournament, possibly next Friday; those interested should sign up for this also.

FURTHER ITEMS ON MEALS

There will be continental breakfasts served every day at all the hotels except Hargood House.

For the dinner on Saturday the 17th, you may have either fish or poultry. Please indicate your choice on the sign-up sheet at the Gifford House desk no later than the end of Orientation on Saturday morning.

FOLLIES REHEARSALS

Rehearsals for the variety show will begin on Sunday from 12 to 2PM and continue at this time every day through Thursday. Those who want to participate should bring to the Sunday rehearsal a 3x5 card with a brief description of the act, and whether it is fast or slow. Do not worry about having your act perfected at this rehearsal--the important thing is that you express yourself in your own way.

PHONE

A reminder that the official Fantasia Fair phone is the phone booth at the Gifford House, phone number [REDACTED]. This phone will be answered 24 hours a day.

TOWELS

Please do not use the hotel towels for removing makeup--this makes them very difficult to clean. Tissue is provided for this purpose.

RELEASES

Please return your photo and videotape release forms to the desk at Gifford House as soon as possible.

SCHEDULE ADDITION

After the Friday cocktail party, there will be a videotape presentation of events from last year's Fair at the Crown and Anchor.

PAJAMA PARTY

The oldest floating pajama party in town (now internationally famous, courtesy of Keith Mano and Playboy Magazine) resumes tonight and every night after the bars close in Room 114 of the Crown and Anchor. Your hostesses Betty Ann Lind and Michelle [REDACTED] invite you to drop in for some late-night conversation and relaxation (BYOB, however).

FOLLIES REHEARSAL--PS

The Sunday rehearsal will be at the Crown and Anchor, Back Room.
