

"ADVANCED" SURGERY

Einar Wegener, a Danish painter, who had been married for years, recently underwent an operation at the hands of Professor Doctor Warnekross, well-known Dresden gynecologist. The operation resulted in the changing of the man into a woman. He—or rather she—adapted the name Lili Elbe. The marriage was declared void. It is also said that the man-woman has given up the profession as a painter. Above may be seen the former Einar Wegener, now Lili Elbe.
