... going to S.P.I.C.E. for the first time was the hardest thing I ever did. Also the smartest.
 Miriam C.

... I was particularly impressed with the warmth, honesty and friendship of the women and couples ... I found myself more focused on relationship issues ... and acceptance.
 Gloria H.

I felt a bonding that can only come from sharing your innermost thoughts and feelings.
 It is important for wives and partners to come together and be united as we are our best support ...
 Stephanie J.

... come to S.P.I.C.E. to know that you are not alone. Bring your issues, your curiosity, your pain and, perhaps, return home with some new tools for making your marriage or partnership more of what you dream it can be.

Leslie Hilburn, MSW
 (presenter at SPICE V)

... S.P.I.C.E. was created by wives and loved ones in relationships with transgendered men; ... this conference can help relationships with understanding,
 love and compassion ...
 Larry H.

Thanks to four SPICES, I am now strong enough to share this event with my husband. Now I am ready to have him join me at SPICE. We both will be in Atlanta in 1998!
 Onnalee G.

... Almost all, according to an "in house" survey taken by the participants, left with a feeling of enlightenment and enrichment.

Sweetheart Connection
Summer 1997, Vol 5, No. 3

... I was impressed with the commitment of participants to support one another in the process of coming to terms with crossdressing in their lives and relationships. Above all, I feel I have met some wonderful people and saw how SPICE makes a difference!

Walter Bocking, Drs.
(presenter at SPICE V)
