"Prom Nite '97 at The L. & G. Center"

It was a really gaye Prom Nite -- great opportunity for people who never enjoyed their original prom.

All the Prom Queen contestants were D/Q's.

The Prom King winner was a D/K. And the special guest entertainer was our own Queen ALLYSON ANNE performing a Stonewall anthem, "This Is My Life (This Is Me!)". Imperially shown

Dear Queen Allyson Allante:

I write to salute the Imperial Queens and Kings of New York for your many excellent contributions to the transgender, gay, lesbian and bisexual community in New York.

Throughout its history, the Imperial Queens and Kings of New York have made a tremendous contribution to the fight for civil rights and visibility for the transgender community. I applaud your years of service and activism, and wish you continued success in the years to come.

I look forward to seeing the Imperial Queens and Kings at events during Pride Month.

Sincerely,

Imperial Queens "Act-Up"

Imperial Queen Allyson and King Farrell were in attendance representing IQKNY at ACT-UP's Tenth Anniversary party. The celebratory event took place on Saturday, March 22nd at the avant-gard performance and party space called P.S. 122 in NYC's East Village. Many other prominent people who are known for their hard work in the battle with the AIDS crisis were present to help mark a ten-year milestone for ACT-UP. ACT-UP (AIDS Coalition To Unleash Power) is a fearless political and civil rights organization that stands up for the rights of those who have HIV and AIDS. Two days later on March 24th some IQK members joined ACT-UP in a triumphant demonstration against Wall Street. The protest was in the financial district since Wall Street maintains and advances the causes of large pharmaceutical companies charging exorbitant prices for key drugs to treat AIDS. For more information on ACT-UP call (212) 642-5499. When it comes to standing up for one's rights IQK has always been known to "Act-Up".

Healthy & Prommy

Imperial Queens & Kings were happy to take part in the Third Annual Transgender/Transsexual Health Empowerment Conference on Friday and Saturday, April 25th and 26th. Queen Christy Lynne Belle gave a wonderful representation of our group. The event was sponsored by The Center's Gender Identity Project. A healthy community is a strong community. The conference was a valuable opportunity to gain access to information, network with and meet other individuals and also a fun way to spend some time. Entertainment and refreshments were also provided. Many thanks goes to Roz Blumenstein, director of GIP, for helping to provide an exceptional event. Roz is also a good friend of IQK and was a guest speaker at our April business and social meeting. She herself is a wonderful advertisement for a dignified and intelligent transgendered person.

On May 10th there was a Prom Night that was more fabulous than any senior prom of any high school. The Dance Committee of The Center (208 W. 13th St., NYC) held a dance with a Prom theme and invited Imperial Queen Allyson and Imperial King Storme to be on the judging panel for the Prom Queen and Prom King contest. The Center was crawling with people trying to look like fresh, young, virginal, school girls. Well, at least they were trying. Queen Allyson dazzled the crowd as she performed the Gay anthem = "This is My Life", made famous by Shirley Bassey. The winner of the Prom Queen contest was our very own V. P. Queenette Tina Rapport, who was wearing a beautiful, frilly, powder-blue, girlish gown. The title of Prom King went to the Drag King performer Moe B. Dyck, who strutted his macho, butch charm on stage. Tina and Moe made such a cute couple. Many of the dance participants followed the American tradition of losing (or re-losing) their virginity on Prom night. Well, at least they tried.

IQK & Brooklyn Pride

Countess Clovoria bewitched the audience at the first fundraiser for Brooklyn Pride on Friday, April 4th, at a dance that took place at The Gay Center in Manhattan. Imperial Queens & Kings were the very first organization to sign-up to take part in Brooklyn's first Gay Pride Parade and entertainment rally. Jerry and Daysha, of Brooklyn Pride, first announced the news of Brooklyn Gay Pride and requested IQK to lead the parade at our 28th Anniversary Party in Nov. of '96. The event will take place on Saturday, June 14th. Call (718) 670-3337 for more information. Countess Clovoria and Count Yaro aroused the audience when they sang at a Brooklyn Pride open-mike event on Wednesday night on April 16th at Spectrum, the Brooklyn disco where "Saturday Night Fever" was filmed. Remember back in the '70s when everyone thought John Travolta was straight?

The Queens & The Bronx

Imperial Queens & Kings were honored to be attending the opening of The Bronx Lavender Community Center on April 26th. Called a "Unity Open House", there was a warm reception and ribbon cutting ceremony with The Bronx Boro President and former '97 NYC mayoral candidate and a dear friend to our group, Fernando Ferrer cutting the ribbon. Ferrer also was an honored guest speaker at our March business and social meeting. The entertainment for the event was superbly provided by Kontessa Kitt Holiday and Marquessa Michelle, who just so happen to be among our finest and most talented entertainers. Both ladies dazzled the crowd with their live singing voices and stunning stage presence.

Queenly In Philly

On May 11th, Philadelphia, PA got a taste of Imperial glamour and talent when our entertainment chairlady Kontessa Kitt Holiday took part in that city's Pridefest '97. With the Imperial Queens in town, "The City of Brotherly Love" quickly transformed into "The City of Sisterly Love". Kitt captivated the Philly residents and visitors with her live vocals and stunning stage presence. She belted out "It's All Right With Me", "Them There Eyes" and other musical numbers. Since the Imperial Queens left town the Liberty Bell will never ring the same again.

Imperial Queen "Voices" Her Opinion

The March 18th issue of The Village Voice ran a two-page feature story on "Mayoress Rudia", who publicly stated that she was "inspired by the Imperial Queens of NYC". The article was titled "Drag Queens Rate Rudia" and our own Queen Allyson was prominently interviewed. As many of you know, Queen Allyson praises Rudia and spoke highly of her to The Village Voice, praising her appearance and voice. Other famous drag queens interviewed were Lipsynca and Lady Bunny, who praised Rudia's make-up and hair-do. Gossip Diva Michael Musto was also interviewed and said less flattering things about Rudia. This confused some people since many readers knew Musto was a Queen but didn't know he was a Drag Queen. Musto is another dear friend of IQKNY and we call her Mona.

Queen Allyson's Tapestry

The current issue of Transgender Tapestry featuring photographs of IQKNY officials and an extensive interview with Queen Allyson that was mentioned in a past column is now in print and on newsstands now! On the cover is a photograph of Queen Allyson, Kontessa Kitt Holiday, Queen Cindy Chan and Queen Christy Lynne Belle. Inside there is a full-page photo of the four ladies along with Countess Clovoria, Baroness Beth-Hellen and King Farrell Armstrong. The centerfold of the magazine has a photo of Queen Allyson in a red-sequined cocktail dress being hugged by a bare-chested, muscular, hunky King Farrell along with some pictures from "Stonewall: The Movie".

The most impressive thing about the magazine was the extensive interview with Queen Allyson, who was able to tell about IQKNY's impressive almost three-decade history. She also spoke about the diverstiy among the members of IQKNY. Queen Allyson spoke about her involvement as a Gay civil rights living legend from founding the Imperial Queens and being part of the Stonewall Rebellion in 1969 to testifying at N. Y. City Council hearings and consulting with and appearing in "Stonewall: The Movie" in 1996.

Transgender Tapestry can be found at certain newsstands or Transgender and Gay bookstores or can be ordered by mail by sending you name and address plus $38 for one year to IFGE, P. O. Box 229, Waltham, MA 02254-0229. Tell them you heard about their 'zine from IQKNY.

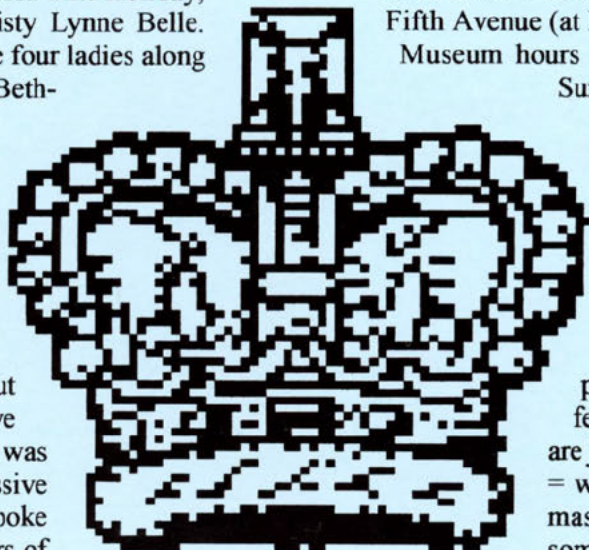

Imperial blessings and thanks goes to the fine folks at Transgender Tapestry!

Transgender Art Celebrated at the Guggenheim

A unique and exciting art exhibit celebrating Transgender people, Transgender expression and Transgender being was on display at the Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum in NYC from January 17th through April 27th. Art in the exhibit included works from famous artists such as Andy Warhol, who provided a delightful self-portrait in drag, Claude Cahun, Man Ray, Lucas Samaras, Marcel Duchamp, Inez Van Lamsweerde, Robert Mapplethorpe and others. Imperial Queens & Kings members including Countess Clovoria, Count Yaro and Lady Karen Bee were among those attending a reception. The exhibit was called "A Rose is a Rose is a Rose". Many artists have deliberately set out to question and explore sexuality and gender. Some comment upon mass media by appropriating the formal and technological means of its representations. One gallery featured works created in the period between the two World Wars. Another featured more contemporary works such as the Surrealists' creative explorations of love and the mysteries of human sexuality. All the art acknowledges that gender and the expressions of gender have provided a fertile milieu for artists. There will be more Transgender art exhibits in the future.

The Solomon R. Guggenheim Museum, also called New York's "spiral" museum is located at 1071 Fifth Avenue (at East 89th Street) in New York City. Museum hours are 10:00 a.m. until 6:00 p.m. on Sundays through Wednesdays; 10:00 a.m. until 8:00 p.m. on Fridays and Saturdays. The Museum is closed on Thursdays. For more information about the museum and directions call (212) 423-3500.

To quote Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick: "Not only are some people more masculine or more feminine than others, but some people are just plain more gender-y than others = whether the gender they manifest be masculine, feminine, both or 'and then some'".

Seventh On Sixth? No, It's Queen Allyson on Hedda Lettuce Show

Obviously, the Imperial Queen is radiant and the radiance got even brighter after the Imperial Queens did a triple perfecta win in 3 contest against the "Court Clowns". IQK easily won (1) the intelligence match, (2) the royal spelling bee and (3) musical chairs game. Show will be repeated again.

QUEEN TINA RAPPORT WINS "PROM QUEEN" AT "PROM NITE DANCE

The fun-filled event was held on Sat., May 10, at the Lesbian & Gay Community Services Center. Of six contestants, Queenette TINA (at near rite) won the crown. Next to her in photo is JENNIFER DEL MONTE. The Center's "Dance Committee" sponsored the Annual "Prom" complete with D/Q performers.

June is Gay Pride Month

Pride begins in Queens on Sunday, June 1st... but you can celebrate all month long. Here's what's going on in the region.

Long Island Pride

Our friends to the east need two days to celebrate their pride. So, on Saturday, June 7, 1997 the CERF-PAC Pride Picnic, a day-long event, will be held on the grounds of the Unitarian Universalist Church on Post Road and Jericho Turnpike. The next day, Sunday, June 8th, Long Island holds their parade on Main Street, Huntington, beginning at noon, rain or shine. For more information call 516-694-6906.

Brooklyn Pride

Brooklyn will host its first Pride celebration on Saturday, June 14 in Park Slope. The events consist of a parade on Fifth Avenue and a day-long festival in Prospect Park. Numerous organizations have already signed on to march in this historic first. Queens Pride is proud to say we've been able to help Brooklyn organize. Hank Krumholz has shared his talents with Brooklyn on numerous occasions. For more information about the Brooklyn celebration call 718-670-3337.

Staten Island Pride

Lambda Associates of Staten Island, Inc. is pleased to announce the first Alice Austen Gertrude Tate Photography Contest and Juried Exhibition, offering a first prize of $1,000. The theme of this year's photography contest is gay relationships- friends, families, lovers. The exhibition will open in June in observance of Gay Pride Month on Staten Island.

Alice Austen (1866-1952) was one of this country's first women photographers to record the people, places and events of her time as they really were. She took pictures with a passion, creating one of the finest photographic records of turn-of-the-century American life. She is represented in the collections of the Library of Congress, the New York City Public Library, the Staten Island Historical Society, and the Alice Austen House Museum.

Queens Pride has made a donation to support this Staten Island pride event. For more information call, 718-876-8786.

STONEWALL,

A Symposium

The 28th Symposium on The STONEWALL REBELLION and ERA shall take place at THE COMMUNITY CENTER on Friday, June 20, 1997 at 7:30 p.m. Don't miss it! Admission: $5.

NYC Pride

Heritage of Pride, the organization responsible for NYC Pride, has announced that Pride Week activities will begin with The Rally in Bryant Park, 42nd Street at 6th Avenue, from 2:00 pm to 6:00 pm on Sunday, June 22nd. Then, on the next Sunday, Lesbian and Gay Pride Day, June 29th, the 28th Annual March steps off from 52nd Street and 5th Avenue at noon. This year's Grand Marshals are Barbara Gittings and Representative Barney Frank. The march runs concurrently with Pride Fest, on Greenwich Street from Christopher to Spring Streets. Finally, Dance 2 on the Waterfront runs from 4:30-10:30 at a location yet to be determined. For more information call 212-807-7433.

Gender Identity Project at I.Q.K.N.Y.

Imperial Queens & A King Pose for TAPESTRY

The "Time" magazine of the national Transgender community is the longtime Transgender Tapestry magazine.
