

Blessed is the person
who has a friend,
for friendship is one of God's greatest gifts.

Ariadae,

I'll get the spelling right next time!! Just a few lines to say hi and thank you very much for the pictures. I've since bought a new camera, but it's nice to know someone else took pictures. The least I can do is send you a couple of shots I took of you. Really enjoyed speaking with you and had a real nice weekend.

Am looking forward to getting up to the Boston area when the cash flow is better. There aren't many I keep in contact with at the present, but would enjoy hearing from you in the future.

Please keep in contact.
