

Drag queens suspected in stabblings

DALLAS — Five men in drag may have been involved with the stabblings of three other men here, Jan. 1. According to the Dallas Voice, witnesses told police that five men wearing dresses were arguing with other patrons inside a South Dallas bar during the early hours of New Year's Day. Witnesses said the arguments eventually moved outside where the stabblings took place. The Voice reports that none of the injured men were wearing dresses at the time they were rushed to the hospital.
