GENERAL INFORMATION

About this Supplement: This Program Supplement is a handy digest of essential information about the Conference including locations of events, changes in the Program, the Silent Auction catalog, and other pertinent information. Please review the information carefully. All details are accurate as of the middle of August. Program changes that have occurred since printing the Supplement are posted in the Hospitality Center, third floor lounge in Ackerman and in the lobby of Rieber Hall dormitory.

Suggested Use: The Program, distributed earlier, describes all of the events of the Conference. Use it to determine your choices for each multiple-event time period. The events, time and location information in this Supplement is arranged in an order that closely follows the information in the Program. Mark your preferences in the Supplement and use it to guide you through the Conference.

About AHP Conferences: If this is your first time at an AHP Conference, a word is in order about the nature of these events. Like the organization itself, the Conference offers a unique opportunity to both give and take. You will be able to get new information, experiences and ideas about personal and professional issues. You will meet new friends, and there will be networking, inspiration and entertainment. You will be able to give others support, understanding, challenge, appreciation and a helping hand to keep things running smoothly. You can give financially to the organization by becoming a member and participating in the Silent and Not-So-Silent Auction.

The success of an AHP Conference grows from the innovation, integrity, caring and commitment of each of the participants. You are likely to see diversity, hear opposing points of view, and be surrounded with choices. AHP tends to support variety, encourage dialog and foster self-determination. The conference encompasses thoughtful exploration into important issues of the day along with careful community building and exuberant celebrations.

We welcome you to this Conference. We hope you will feel a part of the AHP Community and join us in the discussions and share in the festivities. Many others are here for the first time, too. Introduce yourself. Be friendly.

Perhaps there will come a time when you feel overwhelmed. If this happens, take time out. Go for a walk. Find a quiet place for yourself. Visit the Hospitality or the Body and Soul Center in Ackerman. Take care of yourself and have a good time. We're glad you're here!

GUIDELINES FOR ENJOYING THE CONFERENCE:

1. No pre-registration for specific events is required. Attendance is on a first-come basis. Arrive early to events that are particularly important to you to be assured of a space. Have a second and third choice in mind for all multiple-event time periods.

2. Your nametag is your admission ticket to all events. Monitors will be at the door of all events to check for nametags and to assist you with any problems or questions. You will not be admitted without a nametag.

3. Please arrive on time for each event. If you arrive late, enter an event only if it will not interrupt the activities already begun, or at the invitation of the monitor.

4. There are five basic program formats. Plenary events are described on pages 9-11 of the Program; Community Theme Sessions and the Field Activities Meeting, pages 14-15; afternoon workshops, conversations and the Forum, pages 16-31; Evening special events, pages 9-11; and other events such as films, art show and luncheon meetings, page 33.

5. Tapes will be made and instantly available of some of the major addresses and workshops. Single tapes will sell for $6 plus tax or you can purchase a set of four tapes for $22. Go to the Hospitality Center for complete information and purchases. Taping is by Bookshelf Tapes.

6. The central gathering place will be Ackerman, also known as the Student Union. Four locations will be of particular interest:

The Hospitality Center. Ackerman third floor lounge; hours: 10 am-10 pm. Here you can meet people, post or pick up messages from the Message Board, share travel information on the Travel Board, and find out last minute Program changes. You can also find general information about baby-sitting and child care, housing and restaurants.

The Hospitality Center features:

- The AHP Membership and Journal Table. Come and find out more about the Association for Humanistic Psychology. Watch a slide-tape show; talk to Board members, Field Activities representatives, chapter members and others who enjoy membership in AHP. We hope you, too, will join the growing ranks of individuals who support a humanistic perspective by supporting the organization.

- The Silent Auction and the Not-So-Silent Auction Table. Submit your bids for the items listed in this Supplement. Pick up a bid card for Sunday night's live auction and preview some of the items to be sold at this Not-So-Silent Auction. Here is a unique opportunity to contribute to AHP.

- Take One Display Table. Free copies of announcements, brochures, catalogs and other literature will be displayed for you to take.

- Suggestion Box. Give us your comments and feedback about the Conference or the organization.

- The Bookstore. A wide variety of books, especially selected for this Conference, will be on sale.

The Body and Soul Center. Through the Hospitality Center, Room 3564; hours: 2 pm-6 pm, 8 pm-10 pm. The Body and Soul Center can serve you through massage and other body disciplines, provide a place to exchange information, and offer ideas and demonstrations of self-help skills.

The Volunteer Center. Ackerman 2412. If you need to find out about audio-visual equipment, room set-up or supplies, or want to find a monitor or volunteer, come to the Volunteer Center.

The AHP Office. Ackerman 2408; hours: 8 am-6 pm. The AHP office will manage the following functions:

- late registration
- emergencies
- ticket sales for the Picnic
- complaints and commendations

- registration for the Post-Conference Communities
- lost and found
- accounting
- registration for the AHP '82 Conference

7. Meals: People who stay in the Residential Suites or the dormitories will receive breakfast and dinner in the Rieber Hall Dining Room. Breakfast is served from 7:00 to 8:00 am and dinner is served from 5:30 to 6:30 pm. There are a number of cafeterias and small cafes on campus that serve lunch. A list of restaurants in nearby Westwood is posted in the Hospitality Center.

8. The AHP Picnic: The picnic will feature hot dogs, hamburgers and lots of extras, including vegetarian fare. People who stay on campus already have tickets for this picnic; however, if you are an off-campus Conference participant, you must purchase a ticket. Tickets cost $5.50 and will be on sale in the registration area on Friday or at the AHP office between 8:00 am and 6:00 pm Saturday through Monday. Only a limited number of tickets are available, so buy early.

9. Disclaimer: The views and opinions expressed at this Conference are those of the individual presenters. They do not necessarily reflect the organizational philosophy or position of AHP. Presenters are solely responsible for their stated beliefs, claims and points of view.

PROGRAM UPDATE:

Acknowledgments: The Program identifies many of the contributors to the planning and success of this Conference; however five names were inadvertently omitted. We wish to acknowledge the efforts of Anita Conroy, Los Angeles Outreach Committee; David Martin, coordinator of the Play, Movement and Sports Community; Jay Liebovitz, evaluation; Tucker Ranson, Conference photographer, and Shirley LaMere, on-site coordinator for the Silent and Live Auction.

Theme Communities:

"Creating a Civilization that Works" — Susan Brayton, process facilitator, and Donald Keys, President of Planetary Citizens, will join the group. Jean Feinberg will not be present.

"Play, Movement and Sports: New Forms of Re-creation" — David Martin and Elaine Albaum, Los Angeles Planning members, are coordinators of this Community.

"The Ninth Community" — Keiko Matsuura has joined the Ninth Community as a coordinator.

Film Program Changes: A revised film schedule is printed below along with the description of two added films and a slide/tape show. See the "Events and Locations" section of this Supplement for room assignments. (page 33)

Saturday, August 29 7:30-9:30 pm

"Of Birth and Friendship" (see "Toward a Caring Community")

Two new films by Dorothy Fadiman — Her previous film, Radiance, has won numerous awards and been shown in more than 15 countries. Dorothy will be present to discuss both films.

"Just Look". An affectionate caricature of the human tendency to be afraid of our own Light. This film is an excellent tool for teachers and therapists working with personal empowerment.

"I am All of These". A sensuous, metaphorical dance film which explores the magic released through transformation, this film can be used as an adjunct to other growth work.

10:00-11:00 pm

"As Long as There is Life"

"Fritz Perls: Master of Change"

Monday, August 31 10:30-11:00 pm; "AHP Slideshow" and "The Vision Quest: Personal Transformation in the Wilderness" (25 minutes). This slideshow presentation examines the content and process of the modern day enactment of the ancient rite of passage known as the Vision Quest. Steven and Meredith Foster, Directors of Rites of Passage, Inc., and authors of The Book of the Vision Quest, will present the program and lead a discussion.

10:30-11:30 pm; "Math: A Moving Experience" and "Ripple of Time."

Post-Conference Communities:

The Post-Conference Communities are an extra-fee event described on page 36 of the Program. You can register for the Post-Conference communities anytime between 8:00 am and 6 pm in the AHP Office. The cost is $50 for AHP members and $60 for non-members. The Post-Conference communities begin on Tuesday, September 1, at 2:00 pm and conclude on Thursday at 5:00 pm.

The Ninth Community adds the following description to their plans. The three post-conference days are uniquely designed as an intercultural experiment in community. Using structured experiences, we will focus on differences of color, culture, value, religion, belief and language which, in fact, have intense effects on individuals as they encounter one another in their efforts to build real communities in the world.

AHP ORGANIZATIONAL PLANNING: A REVIEW

Saturday, August 29, 3:30-5:30 pm.

AHP's year-long planning project has produced a strange combination of diffuse data and minimal response. Rather than seeing this as a problem to be solved by different survey techniques and more pressure on the membership, we propose to reflect on these findings themselves and to invite interested members to explore together what purposes, policies and procedures are appropriate to a physically dispersed and various membership organization like AHP. Presuming that these discussions will carry us beyond the two-hour time limit of the schedule, we will have space set aside for the discussion to continue the next morning. This meeting and its follow-up will be facilitated by a person outside the organization and, after a stage-setting review of the planning process, will be open to whatever directions the participating members wish to give it.

PAUL WINTER AND THE WINTER CONSORT IN CONCERT WITH AL CHUNG-LIANG HUANG

Tuesday, September 1, 8:00-10:30 pm.

This concert has been CANCELLED.

THE NOT-SO-SILENT AUCTION PROCEDURES

We sincerely hope you will join us at the festivities of this Live Auction and support the organization with your wholehearted participation and generous bidding. Here is the procedure:

1. The Live Auction begins Sunday evening at 7:30 in Ackerman Ballroom. George Leonard and Ilana Rubinfeld are the auctioneers.

2. Some of the items for the Live Auction are on display, or a description is available at the Silent Auction Table in the Hospitality Center.

3. Each person must have a bid card to be eligible to bid. Bid cards can be obtained in the registration area on Friday, in the Hospitality Center on Saturday and Sunday, or at the entrance to Ackerman Ballroom prior to the auction. To get a bid card, simply fill out your name, address and phone number on the form. One bid card is all you need.

4. During the auction, if the auctioneer describes or displays an item you want to bid on, raise your bid card and hold it high as long as you want to keep bidding.

5. Floor monitors will move throughout the crowd to record the card number, name and amount of the winning bids.

6. Bid on as many items as you like. The auctioneers will explain the procedure for payment and collection.

SILENT AUCTION CATALOG

A BENEFIT FOR THE ASSOCIATION FOR HUMANISTIC PSYCHOLOGY

Here is your chance to join the FUN of AHP's Silent Auction fund-raising event. Imagine yourself relaxing at a West Palm Beach condo, listening to meditative cassette tapes or learning the basics of rock climbing in Colorado . . .

This is your opportunity to contribute to AHP's fund-raising effort and (of course) have FUN at the same time. Here is how it works:

1. Read through the catalog and check off the Goods, Services and Entertainments you are interested in.
2. Fill out the bid form and take it to the Silent Auction table located in the Hospitality Center. You can also get extra bid forms here.
3. A Silent Auction Volunteer will accept your bid and appropriately record it.
4. The Silent Auction table will be open on both Saturday and Sunday from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm.
5. All bids must be received by SUNDAY AT 6:00 pm.
6. The names of the winners will be posted in the Hospitality Center Monday morning.
7. Check to see what items you have won and talk with the Silent Auction Volunteer to arrange payments and delivery of your new treasure.

THE SITE.....

The American University was incorporated in 1893 and has an enrollment of 12,500.

The beautiful campus occupies 74 acres of land located in northwest Washington in an exclusive residential section referred to as Spring Valley. The campus is only minutes from downtown Washington, the galleries and shops of Georgetown, and the bike paths along the C&O Canal and the Potomac River. It is easy to get around Washington by bus, subway, or car.

All buildings are air conditioned and facilities and services are readily accessible to people with disabilities.

REGISTRATION INFORMATION.....

Dates—AHP's 1982 Annual Meeting will convene on Friday evening, July 23, and will conclude Tuesday afternoon, July 27. A variety of intensive, limited-attendance, extra-fee Institutes will be offered daytime on Friday, July 23, and Wednesday, July 28. Institute leaders, themes and prices will be announced at a later date.

Registration Prices for the four-day Annual Meeting
