with Marlayna Lacie

Happy Halloween to you, and if this is the only night of the year you can dress like a woman or dress like a man if you are a woman, then go for it! The point is to enjoy the whole experience and the many little rituals involved. Sitting down in front of a tray filled with colorful potions and lotions and then we spray a little perfume and dab a little powder. Suddenly the dimmer lights get a little brighter and before you know the difference you are whatever your heart desires because a little lipstick and a little paint can make a man or woman what they ain't! We worship women so much that we emulate and sometimes become one of them. So isn't it fair and politically correct to extend to them the same ones we have and ask for.

This month, I am so very pleased to have a true legend and icon in show business on the cover of TV Epic. Excuse me for two lines, but a few will understand who and why, to Frank Marsh, I did it and the best is yet to come (RIP). Julie Andrews, and oh doesn't that name say something and at this moment she is touring in the live stage production of "Victor/Victoria." I understand that the show will be coming to Los Angeles and yours truly will be attending.

If you missed Toronto based Livents stage show titled, "Kiss Of The Spiderwoman" the musical. Well, I will tell you that it was spectacular. Made you laugh, cry, and all in between. Tony award winner: Chita Rivera gives a spell binding performance as Aurora. See how she dances and she how she glows and so you want to know why I am so happy.

Well, last night I talked to my friend Marla and oh the things she had to say. She told me that women dressing as men is in now, and soon they will do it in L.A. I sit here pounding on the keyboard, the storm and lightning in the air... I will tell you that this issue is so special. One for the fair sex to hear. Most likely, next year, the girls dressing as boys trend will hit the West Coast. Possibly this is the first time you have heard about it. Well, wake up little sister and buy her some trousers, shoes, shirt and a tie.

A few years ago, I was at a "Act One" in Garden Grove and this very feminine man starts walking by me with the "look" in his eyes. Eventual, he came over to say hello and offered to buy me a drink. When I said, "No thank you, I'm all set."

He looked at me and said, "You don't know who I am, do you?"

Well, I looked at him and he repeated that line. Then he whispered a name in my ear that sent me into a tizzle. It was a lady friend of mine and did she ever enjoy the fact that I thought I was talking to a man. Well, ladies have been cross-dressing for some time now. I feel that they are going for it in the same way we men are and that is more than O.K. with me.

Ladies maybe you heard it here first and I hope so. Over the last year the lesbian community has been going through a number of changes. What first comes to mind is the new group that are known as "Lipstick Lesbians." Most come under the heading of the twenty-something group and look like the coed next door. They do not fit the well worn coded butch/fem look. We have recently had the closet open and the "Drag-King" phenomena is upon us. An East Coast thing at the moment, but it is coming to Southern California. It has to and I predict that by the beginning of next year you will be seeing "Drag-Kings" on the scene.

Now, I have been trying to come up with some ways to describe these ladies who dress as men. On one thing that seemed to click with me was using the term en-DRAB. We could use it in this context: Last night a group of ladies visited the club and they were dressed en-DRAB. Breaking that down we have DRAB being extended to mean dressed as boy. But I have been using DRAB to refer to men not getting all dolled up. So to separate the boys from the girls I plan to use drab for boys and en-DRAB for the ladies. Or maybe we could use en-masculine for the ladies who dress like men! What do you think about my ideas and I do need some feedback on this. Also, I would love to hear and receive photos from any of you women out there that do cross-dress. Should I receive enough replies and nice "manly" shots, I will put together a "Drag-King" photo page or special. Once again, Halloween will be the perfect time for you women to get all drabbed down.

Here is something to think about and that is advertising and how it affects us and our community. Whether it comes from within the gender community, such as a "Powder Puffs" newsletter, or an article in "Genre" magazine about gay men who dress in macho glitter drag. Recently, I heard a radio ad for people looking for automobiles and this one was targeted at people who are looking for a pre-owned vehicle. We can break this down by asking, "Why is it that if I buy someone else's Volkswagen they traded in for a new one I'm getting what they call a used car. But if I buy that used thirty-thousand dollar Lexus that is a trade in that is called a pre-owned car?" To me I see this as the perfect example of the advertising world manipulating us and changing our perception and view of things. Oh, I have a pre owned Chanel leather purse. Tis a pity your wearing one of those outfits from, "Bring Em Back Half Alive-Used And Abused Boutique." As Marlene D. would say, "Bitta, please spare us the misery." So I take it on back to our gender community and the in-house or out-house public relations situation.

We need more ladies stepping forward to present and promote positive images of the transgendered community and lifestyle. A few have told me that I am one of the most visible members of our community around. Fine, and I love to go out in public to have a nice din-din or hit the Mansion to get a photo with Hugh Hefner. Oh, name dropping are you, I hear you saying? Damn right, but only when we as a group "come out" to a point and place where we can mingle with the rich and famous. Only when we look in the mirror and say that we are as good and decent as any one else. That our proclivity for cross-dressing and living the transgendered lifestyle is "not" a curse and we as a group should "not" be damned or discriminated against. Only when we "come out" my friends, will we get that recognition and respect we talk about at conventions. Personally, I have not had or do not have the time to wait around for the governor of some state or some local municipality to pass "Coming Out" laws. Legislation saying it is now O.K. for men to dress as women and for women to dress as men. If that is what you are waiting for, then don't take a deep breath and close those gloss covered lips, sweetie. Have you ever heard the saying, "The road to hell is paved with the best of intentions?" It has been around for quite a while and can be used on occasions when a person(s) invades or enters your own personal world and does things that are detrimental or very negative, even though they were the consequences of these "good intentions."

Recently, I received a letter from a lady from the San Francisco area who said she was new to the scene. This person told me they had been on the debating team in high school and was going to educate herself on the community and gender. Then she was going to go to colleges to lecture and speak on the subject. Hopefully, she will join one of the cross-dressing group in her local area. "Diablo Valley Girls," "E.T.V.C.," and the "Rainbow Groups" are a few. Hopefully, she will join a group and learn from them before she goes out to colleges on her mission in a dress, I feel she should go with an established group of people who have been there before. Ladies, before you decide to become a "spokesperson" for the community, please keep in mind where you are treading, possibly in very deep water. Why do you think you can speak for me or represent me? What credentials do you have to call yourself a leader or a spokesperson? Above all, if you start talking and writing about the community be sure you represent the issues as your own views and possibly not accepted by the entire community.

There are ladies like Melissa Foster, Dee Grady, Joan Goodnite, and Melanie Yarbrough who can call themselves leaders and are respected people who do and can represent the community. If you ask them, they will all tell you they have been involved in the lifestyle and the community for years. So to the lady from the Bay area who wants to go to local colleges, I say, good luck and also consider doing some public speaking at the many cross-dressing groups in your area before you hit the campus and put yourself in the position of speaking for me, my friends, and my community. Last thing you want to be is "CHUM" for the community you want to speak for and represent.

Two in the morning and I can not tune in the BBC on my short wave radio. So radio Australia it is. Early in the year, a gentleman came over to me at one of the parties telling me that he owns an adult bookstore in Hermosa Beach that carries TV Epic. Seems that there are three "ladies" who show up en-femme on the day the new issues are delivered. From what I hear they each get a copy and find their favorite part. Made me smile when he said that they first hit my column. Tasha seems to hit the humorous side as they are hooting and laughing about gin and sin. Yes, they enjoy all the writers, photos, and personal ads, and I hope you do too. My goal has always been to have fun at doing this and passing that along. So any ideas, comments or suggestions and even that well needed constructive criticism is requested. This publication as well as yours truly, have grown and will continue to do just that. The bottom line to me is to make this publication the best it can be, and that will be a positive for the gender community. Once again, I want to thank all the ladies from the community who have thanked me for my efforts. I say to myself, You are being given R-E-S-P-E-C-T. This is the biggest gift I receive for all of the projects I am involved in. It is still the letter or smile and "thank you" from a lady at a party and out for the first time that keeps the two in the morning lamp burning.

By the way, I understand that the three ladies from "Closetville" are hesitant about coming to the club. Well ladies, these Saturday night events are for YOU! Come up dressed as boys and check out the trappings and introduce yourselves. Think about the ladies who live out of state who would love to drive down the Hollywood 101. So the invitation is out and I expect to see you three mucho soon.

Last night I came up with the idea of trying to find more special events to cover for TV Epic. This started with Carla Doll sending me the "Lusty Ladies of New Orleans" article and photo spread. For the "Wigstock West 1996" issue, I dropped my "Fantasy Fashion Fetish Nite" photo spread using the pages for Lady Bunny and friends. This issue I am pleased to have a super sexy two page special courtesy of Crystal Crawford and "Blue Coral Productions." If you have any ideas or comments please write or call me at my message phone (310) 229-5213. This publication is for you and your input is necessary to keep it interesting, humorous, educational (I HOPE), and going. So thank you all for purchasing this copy and do consider getting a subscription. Reason is that it will guarantee you a copy and I am working on some more sexciting material. Will have news and details on the big event on the "Boat" in Long Beach harbor. Cross-dressers from all over the world will be attending and TV Epic will be there to cover, if not be, part of the celebration. One very special person that many of us need is a professional wig stylist that can help us find the right wig that compliments so much that no one questions that it may be faux. Another essential is a pair of breast forms that again compliment you allowing you to really be the woman that is you. O.K., you got the whole setup from wig to heels but just happen to be an out of townner in Los Angeles and looking for a cross-dressing friend who will show you the town, help you with all, from shopping to finding the right hotel and giving you a ride to the club of your choice. Hopefully, it will be one my affairs at the "Queen Mary Show Lounge."

This month I am pleased to be responsible for three new advertisements in this publication. About that wig stylist I referred to, in the beginning of this piece, it is Dee who runs "Yolanda's Wigs" and you will find her ad with details for you.

I met Veronica at the "Dressed To Thrill 3" affair, and she introduced me to her new line of breast forms. Needles to say, I was very impressed and you will find her full page "Fantasy Forms" ad in this copy.

Coming to tinsletown and need a special friend to take you to the best places that a that a "lady" would want to go. My dear friend, "big sister" Leya Quest is the dy to call. Her business card size ad is in TV Epic. I welcome all to the publication, and ask you readers to support them as well as the many community focused business people who are there for you.

Last month I received a trial subscription card to a publication called, "The Nation." Three issues FREE to check out, and a discount on a subscription. Forgot about sending in the card until today when the first issue arrived. The reason I requested they send a few copies is that I am always looking for news and information relating to gender and the transgendered community. The issue I received was for August 12/19 1996, and I assumed that I would never find any "transie" news in this publication. Well, to my surprise and delight, I see in the contents section under the Books and the Arts, P-32 Feinberg: Transgender Warriors: Making History from Joan of Arc to RuPaul by Leslie Feinberg. Beacon Press 212pp $27.50. A book review by Jeanne Bergman and it is a complimentary one. Also mentioned is a book by the author called, Stone Butch Blues. These are books that I plan to read and I will let you know what I think. It is a positive that we do have a number of new books being published from within the community.

Good news as I have lined up international super star, Karen Dior to perform on stage in the "Front Room Show Lounge" at the club. Saturday night, October 26th, will be a party I am calling, "Hooked On Drag" and this evening Karen will perform. So be there and I shall look forward to seeing you.

Saturday night on the evening of October 5th is one to circle with the pink felt pen. This evening myself and many of the local ladies will be attending an informal affair I am calling, "Marlayna Lacie Presents: Late Nite At Trilogy," featuring the Divas of Dining. "Trilogy" is a delightful club located at: 2214 Stoner in West Los Angeles and the phone is (310) 477-2824. There is a great show performed by the sexy waitresses who are, yes, in drag! Plan is to arrive around ten for late dinner or ???, enjoy the show, and a then head over the hill to the "Queen Mary Show Lounge" where we will descend on the "Back Bar" and continue the party. What better way to spend a cool breezy fall evening and you can join us. Then again, you can attend all the events that I present for the cross-dressing community and all it's very special friends.

See you on the 26th at my "Hooked On Drag" party. Yes, the internationally known star and producer of the world's hottest adult videos, Karen Dior, will be my special guest. Should be a night to BE THERE! Once again, find designated driver and should you ever need assistance at one of my affairs do not hesitate to seek me out and I will do all I can to help you with a problem or difficult situation.

Patty Barton asked me to mention that the big "Powder Puffs" Halloween party will be held on Saturday October 19th at the "Fullerton Holiday Inn," located at the intersection of the 91 Freeway and Harbor Boulevard. Exact address is 222 W. Houston and phone is (714) 992-1700. Tickets for the party are $25.00 and for room reservations call ASAP and rates are $59.00 plus 10% tax. Should be a fun and safe event and have FUN and DO NOT DRINK and DRIVE! Ba-dee, Ba-dee, Ba-dee, that's all folks.

I wish you love,
Marlayna

Julie Andrews in the role of "Victoria" in Victor/Victoria

O.K. ladies, listen up! There are some big changes coming in the gender-bending scene. I mentioned in my last column, that in New York, the ladies are dressing up "en-masculine," as I call it. Yes, the girls will be boys. They hang out at the "Club Casanova" and they have their own "Drag King Night." With names like, Villian and Len E. Dykestra who sports a baseball uniform. These ladies are embracing their new roles.

On Sunday evening in a club called, "Cake," the women dressing like men get together just like we do at the "Queen Mary." A fledgling, but growing scene, and I predict it will hit Southern California this fall.

"Mo B. Dick, the tough-talking drag king who hosts the evening, explains its appeal. "There's really nothing else for women that's in this realm of camp," he says. "And there is absolutely a sexual element to it-there are some very sexy drag kings out there that get hit on by men and by women. It's not lesbian only. There are straight and bi-sexual women who perform as drag kings, though the majority are lesbian."

Sounds like "Dragstrip 66" for girls, and the shows these "men" do are totally outrageous. Dressing up like rock star, Axl Rose from, "Guns and Roses" rock band, or wearing a studded leather strap-on at the end of the show. The lady removes her masculine skin to show off leopard pajamas and a black bra. Sending the gender bending world upside down and I think it is great.

As one woman was quoted in the article as saying, "I love the gender fuck stuff!"

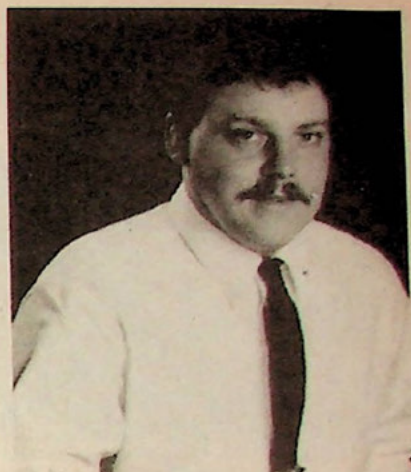

Well, so do I and I put out the big invite to all ladies who dress up to come to my events at the "Queen Mary Show Lounge."

Halloween is this month, and I recall that the first article I wrote for TV Epic about ten years ago still rings so true in my ears. This is the one evening a year when hypothetically we can get dolled up or down and in-between. The positive from this is that over the years I have heard "Halloween En-Femme" many times, told in different tongues, at many far away locations. Bottom line is that the experience is somewhat like a tribal ritual one reads about in say a book by prize winning author, Joseph Campbell. Think about it, once a year the special members of the tribe take part in the yearly "Festival of Masks." All members of the tribe pick a special personae that suits them. We have to keep in mind that there is a group of men that are known as the Berdash.

These are men who are given a special part and place in society because they have a gift that is acknowledged and respected. This blessing is the duality in feeling, personae, and spirit. These men are the "ying and yang" of "masculine and feminine," and this places them in a very special world. On the "Night of the Masks" there is always a few young warriors who take the opportunity to pick the mask of a woman.

Like our Halloween, it is a celebration and this activity is accepted and many times overlooked, shall we say. From what I understand, the American Indian tribes of the Southwest did not have the phrase, gender discrimination in their language. We, in America, do and many times there is the two edged sword to the Halloween tale I referred to earlier. Often I hear that the man dressing up on this evening usually finds a "Halloween Party" that is put on by the company that he works for or family and friends. Yes, this is the time to Go For It! And for many men this is the only time, so why not and have fun.

My thing is that I want you to keep in mind that so many men have said to themselves, "O.K., so I will see Jim Bridges or Val Driscoll for a make-over." Well, I know many "ladies" who attend my events, and many others on the scene that are part of the thousands of men who have circled October 31st with a PINK magic marker. My friend, if this is the only time you can hit Santa Monica (S & M) Boulevard "en-femme," then "GO FOR IT!" Enjoy the fun and then as you strap-on those high heeled lovelies, do not say to yourself that the shoes will be in the closet for a year when the fun ends. Like many, you might find that there is a certain pleasure that comes from that transformation and that sexy outfit with matching hi-heels, dahling. Something that will change your life and consume you. But what a way to change, and you can look at it like the metamorphoses that a butterfly goes through. In that male stage we are like the cocoon and are hidden away. But when the time is right, we shed that skin and spread those glamorous wings and... Well, I will stop right now because it is time, and remember as you

Dealing with Coming Out

by Marlayna Lacie

traipse to your fun party "en-femme" or for you women "en drab" you are doing and experiencing at least for one evening, the special part of cross-dressing that me and many of my special friends refer to as dealing with coming out.

This has become pretty much my open book diary, and my friends who have been reading this series and my column for a while pretty much know who I am as a person in many ways. No one is perfect, and as I said to Miss Tasha one evening, "Hey Doll, I'm FLESH and BLOOD, and no one is perfect!" No one has to be a killer either, and I am going into the subject of alcohol and coming out. Unfortunately, for yours truly, the "demon rum" was there in my early years on the scene. Marlayna found that a drink or two on the way up to the club was a great little feel good. Many evenings, I walked to the "Back Bar" feeling good, as they say. Tasha put up with it, and found it amusing, and so did I until I started to have the bartender refuse to serve me. Rightfully so, and I would traipse up to the bar in the "Show Lounge" and score a cocktail.

One evening, I was talking to my dear "Scene Mom," Mistress Jennifer Antone. She mentioned that she had observed my drinking patterns of late. Telling me, that as a "hostess" for my events and the "Queen Mary Show Lounge," that my drinking was not a positive. Need I say more? One eventful evening, I hit a well known "Doll House" on Santa Monica Boulevard. Hot to trot, and the red dress and high heels were clicking. More than seven cocktails into it, and my tummy tells me that this is enough abuse. Before I can get to the "ladies room" I am throwing up while I am sitting at the bar. Thing is, that no one seems to notice or care, except for one fellow who has been watching me constantly since I sat down. The room is spinning and my brain is reeling from way too much alcohol, but I get up off my seat and I am in his face. Yes, in his face, almost nose to nose and I say to him, "Why are you watching me?" my voice has the tone that tells him I am not happy with his attention.

He looks at me and says, "Are you Marlayna

Lacie?"

Well, it was a shining moment in my glass cathedral career and I am not proud of it. Why I am telling you this very personal story I will tell you later, but for now back to the drunk Ms. Lacie and the scene at the "Doll House" on S & M Boulevard. After I confirmed his suspicion he immediately asked me if I needed help. By this time my mind was going almost blank and the room was spinning. My instincts told me to say yes, asking him to get me outside and out of the club. He assisted me to my car and once I was in the drivers seat he asked me if I was going to drive. I will always remember my reply, and it was this, "No, I will not be responsible for killing someones seven year old daughter or myself and hurt my family." Then I asked him to get the sleeping bag in the back of my car and cover me up. Next morning, I woke up a mess and drove home saying that this would never happen again.

It has not and a while ago I went to see, "Leaving Las Vegas." I picked Nick Cage to win the "big one," and he did. My seven year old nephew has been killed and my cousin is in serious shape in intensive care. I fight back the tears now and the keyboard is getting blurry, my face is wet from tears filling my mouth with salty rivers of pain. I will ask one thing from you, and I have made a point to always request a favor politely. This time I am asking you not to seek out "Demon Rum" or "Drugs" as a way to help you Deal With Coming Out. I AM BEGGING YOU!

O.K., now that big cry is over I can get back to my message, which is if you have to drink and it is part of the club scene, as we call it, then go out with a designated driver or have one or two cocktails real early in the evening and then hit the coffee for the last hour and a half. Better than finding yourself "shit faced" and "twenty-five sheets to the wind," with the wolves a watching and waiting. Better than then walking wobbly kneed to your car and fumbling for those keys. Easier than hoping the dreaded police don't pull you over and ruin your life and career. Simpler to deal with than waking up in intensive care to find out you've killed a seven year old boy and near killed his mother.

Easy for me to write this because I do not want to hear about you my friend being one of those drunk drivers causing carnage and pain to others and yourself. These evenings, if I do have a cocktail it is one or two early in the evening and that is about it. Over the years my drinking, and desire to, has decreased. My instinct and heart tells me that I was well on the way or had a drinking problem. Well, the incident at the bar I wrote about happened about five years ago and I still have a drinking problem. It is with the killers on the road who abuse alcohol and drugs. Once again, if you are new to the scene and the cross-dressing lifestyle, the way to go is to not use drugs and alcohol as part of the process and the beautiful changes that come with dealing with coming out.

I want to start off by saying to those G-G's as we call them, "This one's for you!" Joan of Arc should be named as the saint of cross-dressers. Don't you agree? A while back, I read about saint Joan and her exploits and they were awe inspiring. Yes, she did dress like a man. Just like many women this evening are doing, and going out "en-drab" to clubs and parties. It is not new. Ladies have been putting on trousers and tucking in shirt tails for a hell of a long time. Yes, the movies are the place to go and we find many films featuring women dressing as men.

Pleased as sixteen year old on her first date, I am to present to you the one and only star of tv-screen and stage, Julie Andrews. Most likely, you recognized her right away and who hasn't seen her in the timeless movie, "Victor/Victoria." If you have not, you can just put on your heels and pick it up at the local video palace.

Then you might ask for a movie featuring award winning actor, John Hurt. Who starred in the movie, "The Kiss of the Spiderwoman." From this came the hit musical starring, "Tony Award" winner; Chita Rivera. Yours truly, went to see Chita when the show was in town and what a treat it was. A thrill to see her in the white tux and I thought of my dearly beloved, Marlene Dietreich. Here she goes, your saying to yourself, but dahlings I cannot help myself.

Because we all know the divine,

TV SCREEN AND STAGE

Miss D, was the first lady on the silver screen to dress like a man, walk like a man, and talk like a man. Hey, Diane Torr in New York, I admire and respect what you are doing and you Go and Go and Go, and hopefully the lesbians on the West Coast will be dressing up "en-drab."

Yes, I wanted this to be a special "Girls Who Like To Dress" issue for Halloween. This is the perfect time for couples to go for it! This month I am officially putting out the big "red carpet" invitation to all you real ladies to show up dressed "en-drab." Women dressed as boys is the new thing that will be popular, and it should have started a long time ago. I would love to hear from all you ladies out there who are cross-dressing or are interested.

This publication is just what it says, and that is a medium for cross-dressers, and you are very much included, wanted, and invited.

Next month I will be reviewing two of the new wave of "drag movies." These are a few of the lower budget films that were written when the first wagon trains in the gender bender bandwagon found a safe trail that led to big profits at the box office. The names of these films are, "Maybe...Maybe Not," which is a German movie with subtitles. A European film festival favorite and Germany's most successful film of late.

We have all heard of the gay riots in New York which was sparked when a number of "drag queens" were brutally assaulted by New York's finest with blue suits and badges. The movie, "Stonewall" presents itself as one of the many stories about the incident that sent over twenty queens and gay men to the city morgue. Yes, it was the "drag queens" who said, "This is enough police harassment and it's time to fight back!"

Hopefully, I will have the dates for the hit stage play, "Victor/Victoria." Making plans to attend with a very special mistress friend of mine. Should you hear of any new movies or stage plays featuring men dressing as women or women dressing as men please drop me a note and fill me in as I always am looking for good material for this column.

Tableau Vivant

TABLEAU VIVANT

By-Miss Tasha LaBlush

Sheena Slitt sits on a chair next to a bondage bench...on a small table is an empty goldfish bowl with sand in it. Sheena's so sad. Tears flow like rain showers. "Boo...hoo...boo...hoo." Blows her nose. Honk!

"Sheena, please...nobody likes a cry baby lesbian!"

"But, but...I'll never see her again. I just know it!"

Her rommie Zelda Gland is a rather cold cunt. Yeah, yeah, sure. Who gives a fiddler's fuck?" "Zelda, how can you be so glacial? Little Foo-Foo, was the best, was the best little pet spider I ever hadd!" She can't turn off the water works.

"That fuckin' bug is around here somewhere. It'll show up when it gets hungry or pissed off."

Zelda points to the bondage bench. "Get your sweet pussy ass over here!" Then softly... "Zelda will make her girl feel better, much wetter, little kinky lover."

Sheena stretches her white smooth body across the bench. Heavy leather and rubber galore. She's still crying. Zelda begins to erotically spank her lovely sex slave's nylon pantied ass. Sheena goes from sad to glad: "Oooh, ahh, ooh-lala...yummm..."

From the front door, a LOUD KNOCK. Zelda pauses, goes to the door and opens it. It's a nerdy door-to-door salesman carrying a sample case.

"Evenin' ma'am...I'm Redmond Sexx from Playtex! I'm here to introduce you to our latest Playtex Rubber Girdles! May I come in?"

Sheena is still sprawled shamelessly across the bondage bench. "I'm Zelda Gland and this is my slave, Sheena Slitt. Sheena, meet Mr. Sexx from Playtex."

Sheena looks over her shoulder at Sexx. He says: "Pleased to meet ya." Under his breathe he mutters: "Muff divers..."

Zelda, "What did you say?"

"Cuffs, nice cuffs. Let me show you our new Playtex Rubber Girdles!"

Sheena sits up. Sexx spreads out his girdle samples. Holds up a pink rubber girdle. Zelda strokes the cool, shiny girdle.

"Pink Ice, ladies. Fits like a second skin. Smells good. Perfect for smothering. Long wearing, Impervious to cum stains and they come in exotic colors. (Pulls out some more panty-style girdles with garters.) Emerald city green, honky white and come back to Jamaica brown!"

Sheena takes the amber girdle and puts it over her head. "Oh look Zelda, makes a nice rain bonnet too!"

Zelda taps the toe of her spike heel boot with a leather crop and speaks to Sexx: "We'll take them all penis lips. So, now we know you can sell but can you play? Lick my boots, I see your mouth watering!"

Sexx gets on the floor and licks her shiny black vinyl boots. "Thank you Mistress, thank you."

"Didn't think I heard you call us muff divers did you, did you?! Get on your belly wimp. Pull that shirt off! Sheena...take a walk...on his back!" Sheena tentatively stands on Sexx' bare back.

"Who's a muff diver now?" Sexx is moaning but he loves the cruel torture. Sheena's stiletto heels make deep impressions on his back. Zelda gets his attention with her riding crop.

"Tell us how much you like it" "Yes, oh yes I love it Mistress."

"I'm tired of looking at your face Mr. Sexx from Playtex! Ha...ha...ha."

Zelda stretches the cool pink rubber girdle over his shaking head, crotch on his open mouth.

From the boom box in the corner an announcer can be heard reading an urgent broadcast. "Ladies and gentlemen we interrupt WFAG radio for an emergency broadcast. Twenty minutes ago a group of lesbian witnesses reported sighting a pussy pink spaceship that landed in a strawberry field in Pico Rivera. The bitches had just returned from scamming on the Queens at the Queen Mary night club when their house began to shake as the spaceship buzzed overhead. Miss Slut Heels will you tell us in your own words what happened?"

"I told Tasha to turn off her vibrator then the whole house was filled with pink light and everything started to smell like Christian Dioris Poison. We went outside and this huge spaceship landed. It looked like some gigantic jelly dildo. The head seemed to get larger, a door opened and an army of red-headed transvestites came out. Tasha wanted to invite them in, but I said girl we'd better dial 911!"

Thank you Miss Slut Heels. There you have it listeners. Please stay inside, lock your doors, these transvestites may be dangerous! We now return you to WFAG in West Hollywood!

Zelda, Sheena and Redmond Sexx look at each other in disbelief!....That's it sweetie dahlinks you gotta wait til next time to find out what happens to our bent friends. Fuck the bacteria in a meteor there really is life in the cosmos and she's a very kinky Queen! Love, Sin and Gin, Miss Tasha LaBlush

P.S. Word is that Three Queens from Hermosa Beach anxiously await the arrival of TV Epic each month at their local adult book store. Word is they are closet Queens and they get their vicarious kicks from reading Marlayna, Melissa and yours truly. Well girls you've been sighted and photographed by Hard Copy so ya might as well meet us at The Mary! Ha! I can't help it, I'm just a nut!

Bridges To Beauty

Bridges To Beauty Classy, Flashy And Trashy

Unless Phyllis Diller or Cyndi Lauper happen to be your favorite role models, I'm sure you will enjoy the fashion tips we will be sharing with you today. You don't have to be a cross-dresser to be a fashion victim. Internationally, women have had it up to their browline with the constant fashion changes. If you do pursue the current trends this can be economic torment especially to the cross-dresser. At least a full-timer or genetic female can wear the flavor of the month excessively until it becomes passe. The cross-dresser however, may get less than a dozen wearings before she is filling out the price tag for a garage sale. This is costly and time consuming. Don't let this happen to you!

The next step, more than likely, would be a clearance sale. To this I say buyer beware! I know this is an overwhelming temptation but resist you must. There is always a good reason that those articles are on the clearance rack. In 90% of most cases it is attributed to the awkwardness of the cut, unmatched and unsightly dye choices or detail and appliqués from hell. All of which make them fashion cadavers. Only the most seasoned shopper can handle the rigors of radical markdown without dismissing all of the points thus mentioned.

Any full-timer will tell you that a good wardrobe starts with some essentials. A good fitting jacket in black or navy, a matching skirt, a simple blouse in white or ivory. To this add a basic black dress (preferably one with simple lines). The dress should be appropriate for daytime and ready for evening with just a few easy additions such as a beautiful scarf, rhinestone earrings and brooch or a simple strand of pearls. You should also look for a neutral pattern to the fabric so as not to overates a timeless beauty.

A classic A-line cut or a quality fabric and tailoring are never snubbed by fashion snobs. It is the trend surfers who they will trash. This does not mean however, that you cannot have fun with your choice of dress, hair or makeup. The key here is to remember where you will be wearing these items as well as who will be seeing you in them.

I suggest you have a qualified professional "do your colors" to help you find the balance between your body and your complexion. You might be shocked at what a significant portion of your current wardrobe might be warranted taboo. The results can be quite stunning.

The majority of today's models are victims of eating disorders and are seldom over the age of 25. Remember, models are not real people. The same fashions that give an ad a "come hither" waif look definitely will not give the same impression on someone six foot and up, weighing around two hundred pounds, no matter how appropriate the padding or corsetry.

As painful as it may be, for the best results one must admit to their physique. Now I know everyone would like to look in the mirror and say she is a perfect size ten. However ladies, this would be as real as my telling all of you I'm the Tooth Fairy. Your height, frame and weight are all important in finding the look that will work for you. Making power or clash with your choice of scarf or accessories.

By learning to build around the basics you will start to have a wardrobe that is color appropriate for you and as contemporary as you choose to make it without breaking the bank or any fashion laws.

I like to work with what I call the Grace Kelly look. By this I mean a classic look which never goes out of style, be it your wardrobe, hairstyle or makeup application. This is what cre-

Classy, Flashy And Trashy

these all important choices is how you can create the illusion of perfection everyone would like to see in their mirror.

This does not necessarily mean you will go out in public, and here comes that word I hate, pass! It does mean however, when someone looks at you they can see at a glance that you have good fashion sense as well as a good self-image. Nine out of ten people will say, "How attractive she is." or "My what a beautiful outfit. I wonder where she bought it?" As opposed to, "Oh my God, that's a guy in a dress and it's a dress that neither fits or flatters him!"

Now the heart of why I'm sharing these fashion woes with you. Hold onto your hair ladies! What you have been looking for all these years you have been cross-dressing is finally yours for the asking. It is the Jim Bridges' Dress Collection! We are not just bringing you the same old thing. You know, dresses which don't really fit you and are over-priced. I have spent many, many hours at the drawing board with my dress designer in order to address the special requirements necessary to create a truly unique dress line to not only fit, but enhance a male body.

Anyone can just make a large dress. This however, does not meet the needs of the average cross-dresser. Women's dresses are designed in complete contradiction to the needs of the cross-dressing community. They are cut narrow in the shoulders and rib cage, and are fuller in the hips and buttocks. I have many clients describe their measurements as being a size eighteen twenty on the top and only a size twelve on the bottom. I have taken into consideration this problem, that's why today is independence day for all male to female cross-dressers. The Jim Bridges' Dress

Line not only gives you a much more feminine appearance, they will allow you to be comfortable while looking fabulous. This is due to the fact that all of my dresses have been designed with a fuller cut to the shoulders and rib cage. They are also longer in the torso, placing the dress where your natural waist line is. No more sneaking around a corner to pull your dress back down. The sleeves are also longer and will stay at the wrist where they should be. You don't have to tell people you are wearing 3/4 length sleeve.

The majority of the collection has been designed in a variety of new stretch fabrics and no, this does not mean something sleazy in spandex. Many of these dresses are machine washable, which means money in your pocket. Due to the fact we are dealing with stretch fabrics and a fuller cut where it is so badly needed, only two dress sizes are necessary. This makes it convenient for the novice to the full-timer. Size one will comfortably fit a size twelve through sixteen and size two will accommodate a size eighteen through twenty-four.

Let's backup just a moment to the part about admitting to one's physique. If you know you are a size eighteen or up please don't try to squeeze into our size one. You are only cheating yourself from looking your best.

I have also come up with a nice selection of jackets to compliment the dresses. A jacket can allow you to wear a sleeveless dress and not worry about tattoos or hair on the arms. It also minimizes broad shoulders and camou-flages a large waistline.

With my dresses and jackets you can create a seemingly endless number of mix-and-match outfits with a minimum of effort and a maximum of savings. I have created three basic looks for our collection of fabulous collectibles.

I'm sure you all remember the movie "The Three faces of Eve." This brings to mind the diversity of our community. We are not always the same person day in and day out. This affords everyone to have their own little fantasy, whether it be career woman, diva, fem fatale or just plain tramp of the evening. For centuries it has been the prerogative of women around the world to play the role of a chameleon and change their look depending on their mood. Now you have that choice also, that is why I have created my collection to be Classy, Flashy and Trashy. The good news is my collection will not put you in the poor house neither will you have to replace it next year or the year after. In closing I would just like to remind you that due to the fact these dresses and jackets have been designed with the male frame in mind, you will most definitely create a more feminine image because everything is in the right proportion for your special needs. Whether you are ingenue or a diva, I guarantee you there is something of interest for you in the Jim Bridges' Collection!

Seeing is believing ladies, so stop by our boutique and try on a dress today, and don't forget to send for our all new, all important catalogue of dreams. And remember mon fem fatals, at the Jim Bridges' Boutique only your imagination can inhibit you.

Sincerely,
Jim B.

I have been getting a lot of inquiries about the different conventions, and where and when they are being held. I thought it might help if I did an article talking about the different conventions, and telling when they usually happen and where they are usually at, so people can get an idea when these events are and where they are at.

January is a slow month with only one convention. The first event held in Boston, usually the last part of the month. The event is hosted by the "Tiffany Club" of Wahlborn, Massachusetts.

In February you can attend the "Texas Tea Party" which is usually held in San Antonio, Texas.

This year's event is being held in Dallas, Texas. The "Texas Tea Party" is normally held the last week of February, and has a very good attendance. They cover a lot of cross-dressing and couple issues, besides having a lot of fun.

In March is the "International Foundation Of Gender Education; Coming Together Conference," which changes location every year to give people from around the country to be able to attend the event. It has programs to cover all segments of the community. They have a lot of professionals involved, and do a lot of work with the general public. The convention is usually held in mid-March, but may vary in dates, depending on where the convention is being held.

In April is the "California Dreaming Convention" that is normally held in Southern California, around the end of April. This year's event is being held in San Francisco and in coming years, they hope to take it to San Diego. The event is organized by a collation of the "California Transgendered Organizations," and has a very well put together educational program, as well as a large selection of vendors. They always have well planned social programs for all who attend the event.

May is a busy month when you usually have the first of two; "Paradise in the Poconos Conventions," that are held in mid-May, in Canadensis, Pennsylvania. Toward the end of the month you have the "Spring Fling," which is hosted by the "Tiffany Club."

Another event which is new to the community is the "Euro Fantasia" that is going to be held in Den Mark this year. This event has been held for a couple of years now. They are normally held in May, but I haven't heard much on there turn out or the types of programs they have.

GENDER expression

"Espri" is an event held in the Northwest of Port Angeles, Washington each year at the end of May. The event is sponsored by three groups; "Emerald City" in Seattle, Washington, "Northwest Gender" from Portland, Oregon, and the "Cranberry Society" of Vancouver, Canada. They normally get a good turnout and do some unusual things.

June is the "Be All You Can Be Convention" that is normally held the first week of June, and is rotated between five different locations. This year's event is going to be held in the Detroit area.

The "Transgendered Law Conference" has been held in June and August, and this year's event is being held in July, in Houston, Texas. This is a very educational event and has a lot of information that is very helpful about your rights as a transgendered person.

Another Educational conference being held during the summer is "Spice Spouses/ Partners International Conferences For Education," which is setup to help educate spouses in the transgendered lifestyle and to work with spouses and their personal relationships. This conference has been very beneficial in helping spouses to better understand the transgendered lifestyle, and dealing with problems in their relationships.

September is a busy month, starting off with the "Miss Continental Beauty Pageant." For those who like beauty pageants, this is a two day pageant held over Labor Day Weekend. The second, "Paradise in the Poconos" event, is held in Canadensis, Pennsylvania. Also this year is the sixth annual "Southern Comfort Convention" that is very gender educational oriented, and has been breaking new ground in reaching out to the gender community. This event is normally held the last week of September. Up in Canada is the tenth annual "Mardi Gras," held in Ontario, Canada.

In October there is a lot going on with four events being held during the month. The first is the second annual "Transgendered Lobby Day" in Washington D.C. We had a hundred people who attended last year's, and we talked to senators and congressmen about the rights of the transgendered people. "Fantasia Fair" is held in the mid-part of October, in Providence Town. It is normally a well attended event, and has a lot of good programs for people in the transgendered community. The "Tiffany Club" hosts "Fall Fling" in Providence Town, just before "Fantasia Fair." Then there is "Fall Harvest," hosted by a mixed group of transgendered organizations who host the event in the Mid-west region of the U.S.

November starts to taper down some with the "Riverside Gala" event in Erie, Pennsylvania, normally held in mid-November. The "Tri-Ess Holiday En Femme" is also held in mid-November, but the convention is rotated around the country and hosted by local "Tri-Ess" organizations.

In December there aren't any scheduled events, but many of the local support groups hold Christmas parties, and you can always find a New Years Eve party going on somewhere. Besides that, there are always many other local things going on during Valentines, Halloween, and other times of the year.

There are always changes going on, and new events that are being setup. If I can be of help in getting information, or answering any questions, feel free to drop me a line and I will get back with you.

personal Stationery

We know how frustrating it can be to lose a picture by sending it to an irresponsible person or couple who neglect to return it. That's why Pathway Communications is now offering a special service for our readers which will safeguard your pictures from loss, and it's as easy as 1, 2, 3!

Here's how it works:

You mail us your picture(s) along with the attached order form, making sure to select the stationery and paper style you want. Remember: send high quality photos that are in focus and have good contrast and tone. The better your picture, the better your stationery.

Then we mail back your original picture(s) and stationery, with a complete black and white reproduction of your picture(s) on each and every one, along with any requested text information (such as a greeting, P.O. Box and/or a phone number). That's all there is to it!

This was a very special evening as the West Coast was blacked out due to a massive power failure. But it did not stop those make-up mirrors from being used.

The "Back Bar" was SRO (standing room only) by midnight and then Mistress Sophia, S & M Sharon, Captain Kurt, Sheena, Mr. Jerry, and Santa Ana Sharon showed up. Great fun for all and everyone wanted a new copy of TV Epic.

Have to mention that Miss Marla is now my official assistant and I thank her for her help, advice, and support. I also ask that if you do attend one of my events that you extend to her the consideration and respect that she well deserves.

Along with Miss Marla I want to thank the girls in the show and the staff at the club for being there one hundred percent in support. Once again, these parties are for the gender community and it's many friends.

This month's affair is on the 12th. Myself and all involved will be looking forward to seeing you. Miss Debbie will be working the door and a big thank you to her.

Sexy Belle Attire.

Screen Queen Deluxe.

Lights, cameras, and plenty of action, was the theme for a sizzling Monday night in the "Front Room Show Lounge." Infamous around the world, and in the middle of the beehive, is Crystal Crawford working her stinger off. No, she is not a transsexual, as many assume, but this very talented lady is making skirts rise. Her new video, that she is directing and starring in, is a hot one.

Limos lined up and down Ventura Boulevard as a bevy of sexy ladies and escorts arrived for the filming. A "fashion show" segment was on the schedule, and a treat it was. Yours truly was there to enjoy the affair and get some of that "camera time." Hope you enjoy the photos and do watch for Miss Crawford's new release which should be on the shelves this evening.

Have to mention that Crystal and "Blue Coral Productions" put together a great evening at the club and if you missed it do get yourself a copy of "Transsexual Party."

One of the famous "Chanel Twins."
