

DUDLEY LIDDELL AGAIN

IN HANDS OF POLICE.

Dudley Liddell, aged 16, of 1224 Termon ave., Northside, who was arrested several months ago while masquerading the police alleged as a girl in the Northside parks and following a hearing before a police magistrate was paroled, was taken into custody by Special Officer John Beck and F. C. Andrist, at Federal and General Robinson st., Northside, shortly after 8 o'clock last evening and was placed in the Allegheny police station.

The youth is accused of robbing Martin's Women's Apparel store, at 500 Federal st., Northside, of women's clothing estimated to be worth over $365. The police assert that all the stolen clothing was recovered in the Fort Wayne railroad station, where it had been checked as baggage to Cleveland, O.

Following his arrest Liddell, the police allege, confessed. He is said to have told the police that he intended to ship the clothing to Cleveland and then go to the Ohio town later. He told the police, it is alleged that he intended to wear the clothing in Cleveland, saying that he had "been there before." The police assert that the youthful offender was arrested in Cleveland while masquerading as a female, prior to his arrest here several months ago.
