Scope and Contents

This collection includes documents from Jenkins' time as aide to both Robert Lilligren and Elizabeth Glidden, notably her work on the redevelopment of 38th Street and Chicago Avenue. Also documented is her move to Elmer L. Andersen Library in the Jean-Nickolaus Tretter Collection as the first Transgender Oral Historian. This collection also contains published and unpublished writing from Jenkins including tributaries, Pieces of a Scream, and "Glory Rap".

Biographical / Historical

Andrea Jenkins has worked in the public service for 25 years. She worked as aide to Robert Lilligren and Elizabeth Glidden. During her time as an aide she worked with the redevelopment of 35th Street and Chicago Avenue. She also worked with Glidden to initiate work on many projects including the development of the Seward Co-op Friendship Store, the Chicago Avenue Fire Arts Centre, One Minneapolis, One Read, and the Trans*Equity Summit. Jenkins is also an award-winning poet, performer, and writer. She has performed her work around the Minneapolis area, and the nation. Her work has been published in journals, anthologies, and chapbooks. She also released her own book of her poetry in 2015 called "The T is Not Silent." Andrea is a well known public speaker, she has spoke as a keynote speaker, and in conference. She also delivered a TEDx speech in 2016, in the Ted Mann concert Hall on the University of Minnesota Campus. In 2015 she joined the Tretter Collection as the first Transgender Oral Historian.
