

License Denied Christine

Because birth certificate still reads "male" Christine Jorgenson, subject of a sex-change operation eight years ago, was denied license to wed Howard J. Knox by New York City marriage license bureau. They are shown leaving bureau. Christine said her attorney will seek change on birth record and she and Knox will re-apply. (AP Photo)