

About the Presenters

ARI KANE, M.Ed.
and MARILYN VOLKER, Ed.D., are founding members and serve on the Board of Directors of the Outreach Institute of Gender Studies. They have extensive experience working with individuals of the Conscious Gender Community, including males and females who are addressing issues of gender identity in their lives. In addition to the practice of individual and group therapy, they have designed and delivered seminars for professionals interested in learning more about gender issues.

THE OUTREACH INSTITUTE OF GENDER STUDIES

is a not-for-profit educational corporation of the State of Maine. It serves as a resource for helping professionals, transsexuals, crossdressers and androgynes. It publishes the semi-annual Journal of Gender Studies. Inquiries about the services and resources of the Institute should be addressed to:

Gender Attitude Reassessment

Understanding Transsexuals,
Transgendered Persons and Androgynes

The Gender Attitude Reassessment Program (GARP) is a full-day, intensive workshop designed to explore gender diversity within American society. It is particularly appropriate for educators, therapists, social workers, counselors and healthcare professionals. Individuals with a personal interest in gender issues are also welcome to attend.

Through the use of media, face-to-face interaction, role playing, dynamic lecture presentations and printed materials, as well as body movement and focused cognitive processes, the GARP will address concerns relating to gender diversity in the United States.

The workshop agenda includes Gender Role Inventory, the Lenses of Gender, Ethnic and Cultural Diversity and Alternative Gender Forms, the Traditional Props of Gender, and the Tao of Gender, a New Paradigm.

Participants in the Gender Attitude Reassessment Program will:

- Develop increased understanding of how individual expressions of gender and gender role are determined;
- Become familiar with the concept of Conscious Gender Community (CGC)
- Understand the Jungian concept of anima/animus.

Workshop Fee: $79.00 (includes lunch)

.6 NASW & Teacher CEUs Available • Pre-registration is required.
