"HE" WAS A WOMAN

Death Reveals the Secret of a Tammany Politician;

MASQUERADE FOR TWENTY YEARS

Murray Hall's Wife Quarreled With Him Because He Got Drunk and Caroused. 12

New York Sun Spoolal Service New York, Jan. 18.—In the death of Murray Hall, proprietor of an employ-ment agency at 145 Sixth avenue, a re-markable state of affairs is disclosed. Hall died from cancer of the left breast, and when Dr. William C. Gallagher made an examination he found the victim to be a woman. Dr. Gallagher learned from other occupants of the house that "Mr." Hall's wife died a few weeks ago, after a married life of twenty years. Many who had known Hall for years have never suspected that she was not a man. Hall was a professional bondsman, poli-tician and all around sport. He was a member of the Tammany association of the fifth assembly prechect and was well known to every politician on the west side of the city.

of the city.

of the city. Mrs. Murray Hall's maiden name was Hobbs. Her will bequeathed some of her property to "My beloved husband, Mur-ray Hall." The will contained a pro-vision that upon the death of Murray cer-tain property should go to our "dear be-loved daughter, Minnie." She is an edanted daughter loved daughter, Minnie." She is an adopted daughter. The story that Murray Hall was a wom-an spread through the neighborhood, but no one in the neighborhood would believe it. The only other tenant in the house said she had been acquainted with Murray Hall ever since he moved in there several years ago. She said: When he came he brought with him his wife and daughter Minnie. I don't believe it possible that Murray Hall could have been a woman in men's clothing. He came home tipsy from political meetings, and now and tipsy from political meetings, and now and then his wife quarreled, and, like other wom-en, she accused him of paying attention to girls whose acquaintance he made. There was a great many of these girls who came to the intelligence bureau looking for places as servants, and Murray Hall, who was a sport, frequently invited them out to the corner saloon, where for hours he would sit in the back room and drink with them. This is what caused many quarrels between Murray and his with and his wife. Once his wife told him she would get a divorce from him if he did not stop his carousing. From the way she talked, I always supposed she was his second wife.

Mrs. Murray Hall told her neighbors that she was going to leave her husband because he was in the habit of staying out late at night and carousing with the poli-ticians and losing money at the poker table. She also told them that her hus-band was in the habit of coming home drunk after attending the chowders of the Tammany organization and that she could stand him no longer.