About The Virginia Prince Award

This award honors a member of the TG community who has dedicated their life to advancing public understanding and acceptance of TG nature and who have given courage, hope and guidance to so many among us. It honors leaders, founders and pioneers who have generated the energy and provided the inspiration to drive our community forward. It honors those sisters and brothers who have created our community's legacy.

Dr. Sheila Kirk is a Board Certified in Obstetrics and Gynecology. She is also a member of the HBIQDA. Noted lecturer and researcher, she is a columnist for Trangender Tapestry and author of community bestsellers, Hormones for the MTF and Hormones for the FTM. In addition, Dr. Kirk currently heads IFGE's Office of Medical Liaison and Research.

Dr. Kirk has a distinguished record of service and dedication to the TG Community. Other awards and honors include: The Trinity Award, the Outreach/Fantasia Fair "Ms. Most Helpful" 1984, The Outreach Award 1986, "Ms. Best Dressed" 1988 and Ms. Fantasia Fair 1990. Dr. Kirk also serves on The IFGE Board of Directors and is a former board member of the Outreach Institute and TransPitt. She was a major force behind the annual Be All Conventions.

Dr. Kirk was one of our ambassadors at the first Euro Fantasia Fair and has participated in several Coronations of the Imperial Sovereign Court. Sheila was always there to lecture, hostess, MC, listen and help make every event a success and the participants grateful for her leadership and presence. Everyone fortunate enough to have spent time with her leaves having experienced the enormous generosity of her warmth, caring and love.

About The Trinity Awards

Trinity Awards are presented at the annual IFGE convention. They are the TG Community's "Nobel Prize." It is to acknowledge our heroes and heroines, people who have performed extraordinary acts of love and courage. It's recipients can be community members or non-members, medical or mental health professionals, or even organizations and services.
