

We all know that everthing we plan doesn't so the way we plan it all the time. Upfortunately the staff of OUR SORORITY is in that exact predicament. This issue is not as extensive as we had planned.

Betty Ann Lind is having health broblems that are impairing her abilities to function as one of the publishers of OUR SORORITY. Our ther publisher, Michelle Williams, is so deeply involved in an a personal matter concerning the movement of her work location that she is also prevented from devoting the time necessary to publishing a larger edition of OUR SORORITY.

The purpose of this article is not to alarm you about Betty Ann's health of cause concern about the future of OUR SORORITY. Rather than wait until we can put out the larger issue, we determined that this issue should so out to assure you that we are still here and to take the opportunity to convey to the our Christmas message during this season that has traditionaly stood for hope and promise.

Maybe I better say right here that Betty Ann's health problem is serious but not terminal. The time consuming element is the array of tests and consultations that are being one to pinpoint the cause and to determine the best course of treatment.

Not only will Michelle's job location be chansing but also her place of residence. As the membership of our group continues to expand so does the room needed for our place to have the meetings. As you will see in Blossom Paster's letter in this issue she no longer will host TV Parties and recommends that her friends now attend Michelle's Parties. If everything works out we will have a large home for our meetings and Parties.

The Staff of OUR SORORITY, Betty Ann Lind, Michelle Williams and myself, Linda Anne Walker, would like to wish each and every one of our readers and their friends and families the Merriest Christmas ever and that the coming New Year brings them the Peace and self acceptance that they need to grow and expand into everything that they can be.

Dears,

After 10 years of very mixed emotions, I have firmly decided to DISCONTINUE House Parties and concentrate on my Consultations and Electrolysis. Make-up instructions along with Consultations, which I have been doing, will continue during regular business hours and days. (Mon. Tues. & Thurs.)

Please DO NOT call me for information regarding parties. I am stating in this letter the name and address to contact and will not give any other information over the phone. If you are not interested in my stated services do yourself and me a big favor - DON'T CALL.

I strongly urge my good, old friends who share so many pleasant memories with me and anyone else who is interested in the type of party which I held to contact:
