TIRESIUS KNOWS : SWING ENCOUNTERS! WHERE COMING OUT OFTEN MEANS GOING DOWN

By Haley Tiresius

Editor's Note: Haley Tiresius is owner and fashion coordinator for TIRESIUS FASHIONS and a monthly columnist for Fliroda-based UNIQUE ENCOUNTERS Magazine, of which she is also Managing Editor. A frequent and outspoken guest on talk shows throughout the Southeast, Haley has been featured in a number of magazines including TRANSVESTIA, NUGGET, VELVET and REFLECTIONS. Always outrageous and usually provocative, Haley is a pre-op transsexual who claims to be quite content being what she is. "Labels limit," she has frequently written. "I am perfectly content being perfectly androgynous. I only resent the price of the hormonal fertilizer that keeps me that way!" Sisters and others interested in communicating their news and views to Haley may write to her %: TIRESIUS FASHIONS, P. O. Box 23492, Tampa, Florida 33623, or in care of this publication. We welcome this flaky half-broad to our pages!

"Coming Out" in drag for our Senior Sisters was an often traumatic affair which only the most ballsy of transvestites, queens and impersonators would risk. The event usually required a large number of supportive gay friends, a special evening, a club atmosphere (Who can afford to rent a ballroom these days?), and the probability of ultimate social castigation from the pallid parlors of so-called "straight" society ("straight" is a synonym for "rigid," you know!). Twenty-five years ago, the closet cross-dresser and the hetero TV — which included most of our senior sisters — remained in the closet because they literally had no place to go and no one to meet when they got there.

"Nothing that feels really good is without risk . . ."

Of course, many of our senior sisters claimed that they loved being in the closet and really had no desire to see anyone but the made-up face in the mirror. They said this especially to psychologists and psychiatrists who would dutifully record these assertions and report that TVs were introverts, shy, and socially asexual. Presumably this included the doctors themselves since it turns out that a good many of them also owned frill-filled closets in which they lived!

In retrospect, we realize that everyone was bullshitting everyone else.

That wonderful journalistic innovation called the "Swinger's Contactg Ad" quickly revealed that almost no self-respecting TV or TS or cross-dresser wanted to stay at home in the closet — the doctors included! Everybody wanted to meet somebody; and most bodies wanted to get something going with other bodies. Contrary to the Journal of Abnormal Psychology, the majority of us TSs and TVs were not asexual, nonsexual introverts. We could lust with the best of women — sometimes better.

The "Swinger's Contact ad" (this rag is full of them — interesting ones!) made it possible for all of us girls to lust freely and with focus. "Swinging Ads" present to the sisters a way to "come out," one-on-one, economically, selectively, and with relatively little social risk.

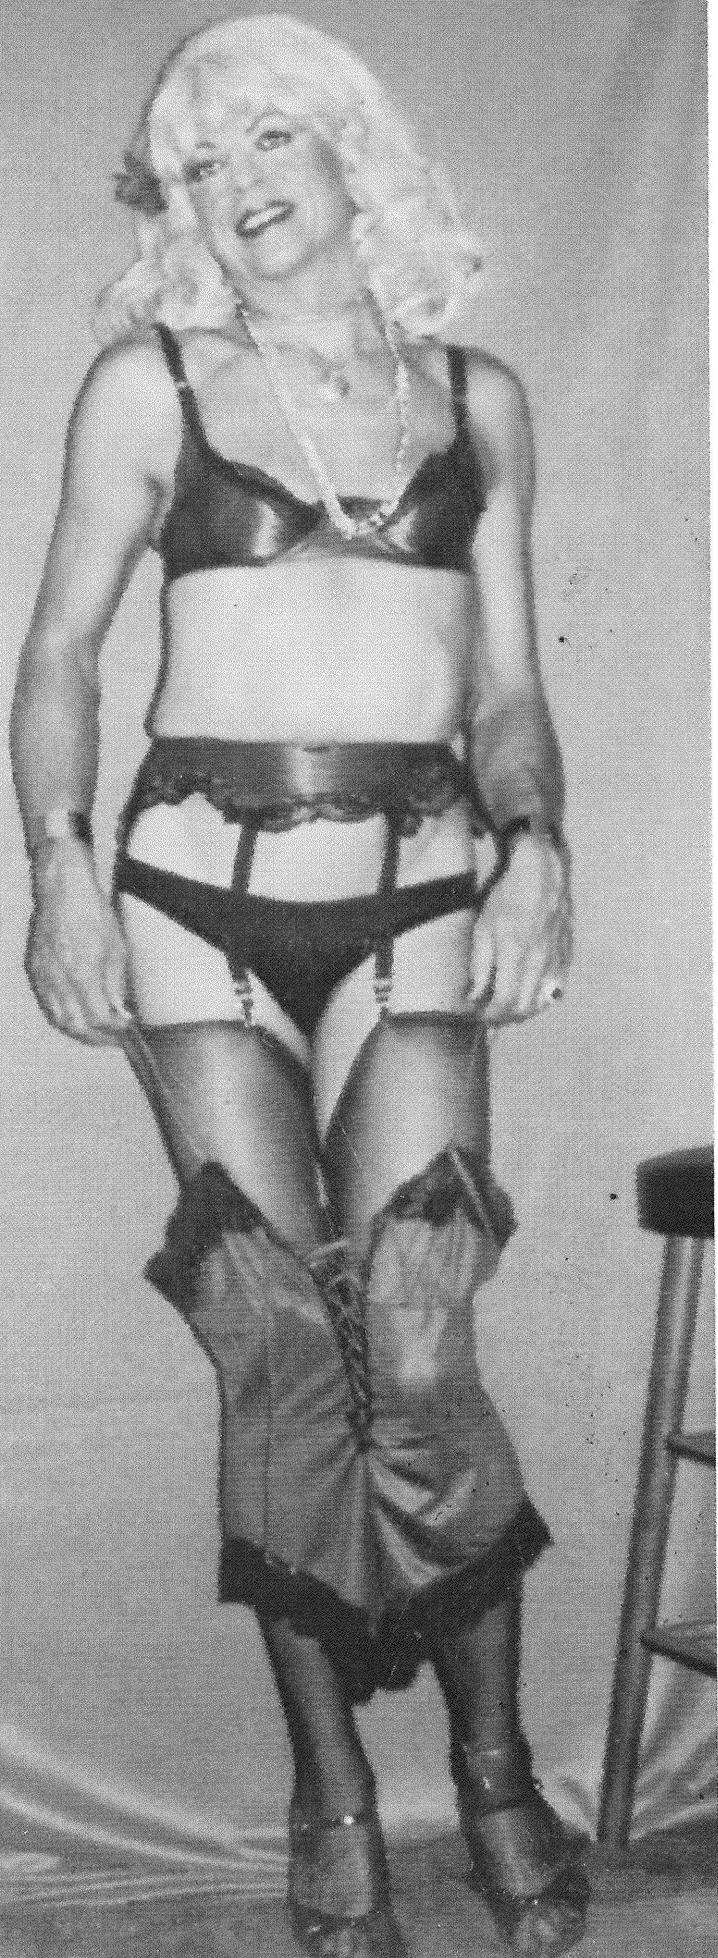

Speaking of "Swinger's Ads," Neptune is about to publish "TV SWINGERS No. 7," its annual dedicated effort to present TVs and TSs 64 pages of active swingers. It's at the printer's now.

But girls — there still remains SOME risk. Nothing that feels really good is without risk. But the risk today has been reduced to a matter of our own good sense or foolishness. Many of us today STILL RISK too much with what we propose to others and what we offer to do for others — simply for the fun of seeing and being seen; and, occasionally, of feeling and being felt.

Tiresius knows! She has been the swinging editor of a swinging magazine for some years now!

The little magazine I edit in Florida (UNIQUE ENCOUNTERS), is open to ads from anyone, whatever their interest or kink. And let's face it girls — there are a lot of kinks popular in America these days, especially in Florida!

But the rest of the staff remains amazed that, in spite of the diversity from which our advertisers might choose, one out of every four ads

"Swingers view an evening limited to looking and talking as boring!"

that comes into our office is from a TV or TS, or from someone who enjoys some form of cross-dressing.

I am not surprised, of course. Tiresius knows that it is a lot of fun being a girl — if only for part of the time.

This daily flow of ad copy also constantly reminds me that many of my TV and TS sisters need — how can I say this without sounding tacky — some improvement in their style. The average personal contact ad from a TV swinger often leaves the TV much too vulnerable and open to bad boys.

I mean, girls, it is a cold, cruel world out there full of creeps, perverts and flakes who don't keep their appointments!

Tiresius knows!

Being an honest bitch, she will admit that she has learned her ad lessons the hard (and more often the "limp") way.

To me, the bottom line that makes a personal ad bad is when it offers too much and asks too little. The TV, who in his insecurity, thinks no one really wants to come and play with him, writes an ad that offers to give a lot and asks little. He will, inevitably, GET little. And what he gets can be rather crude!

But enough of this negative crap. Let me offer a few tips from my considerable experience, both good and bad, on how to write a good and productive ad — especially if you are new at the game.

First, let's admit that getting dressed and going out to meet someone else is a form of "coming out" of the closet. And it is something you really want to do. Then let's admit that in this increasingly sophisticated world "coming out" usually involves some form of "going down." You may try to persuade yourself that all you really want to do when you meet someone else is to be admired in your queenly attire and "talk about mutual interests" like the price of panties or the poor quality of modern pantyhose. But the truth is most swingers, even conservative TVs, view an evening limited to looking and talking as, well, boring!

I mean, if someone is really into looking at someone else dressed — with no other fantasies at play — he can always go to the lobby of his local bus station and stare at dressed people.

I get many letters from novice TVs who seem like interesting people, until they tell me all they want to do is meet me so I can watch them get dressed. Yuk! Getting dressed at best is a labor of love — a private labor, to be sure, and work. It is to me, and I think to most other TVs and TSs, a means to an end, not an end in itself. BEING DRESSED is the kick and, if we get deep-down honest with ourselves, BEING DRESSED well enough to attract and turn someone else on — or at least get their admiration — that is the reward. Watching someone else get dressed for an evening's entertainment is like sitting in the locker room while the really interesting people are out on the field playing ball!

So as you approach writing your first ad, be honest with yourself. Decide as narrowly as you can WHOM you would like to come out with — another TV, a man, a woman, a shemale — and then decide the form of “going down” which most appeals to your fantasy life.

For me, this part is easy. I am a woman. I like men. I like mature, handsome men who know how to be romantic. I like to be wined and dined in a dark restaurant. I like a man to flirt with me and to try to seduce me. What I like best is when the right man succeeds. But then I am quite advance (or primitive, depending on which of my friends you listen to).

But your fantasy can take on other dimensions that are just as active and just as much fun to you. Whatever you decide, write it. Ask for it in your ad.

And whomever you would like to meet through your ad — man, woman, shemale, TV — be specific as to how you want them to be and then, in the follow-up calls or correspondence, make them show evidence that they are what they claim.

Don't let yourself begin to believe that no one out there wants to meet you. Don't sell yourself short. If you do, you will end up on the short end!

Girls, I have a secret to tell you. This land is crawling with interesting people who want to meet or spend an evening with a TV, shemale or TS. A well-written, well-placed ad will bring weekly evidence of this horde. Do it right and, to use a Floridaism, you will find yourself “in hog heaven.”

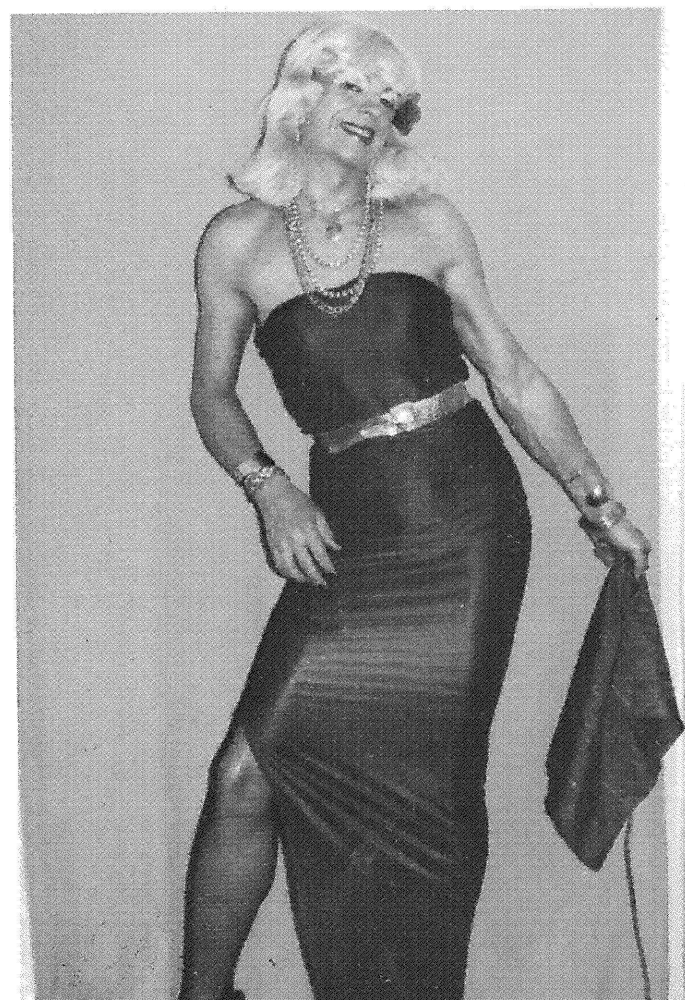

Since “coming out” is “going down” with taste, make sure you do it with style and taste. Be demanding! A woman by nature is demanding! If you are into assuming the nature of a woman, do it right. Make demands! Be specific and demanding in your ad and in your encounters.

But, girls . . . Be sure you do it with an exquisitely soft, feminine touch. That is the name of the game!

ALL ABOUT YOUR N.Y. EDITOR

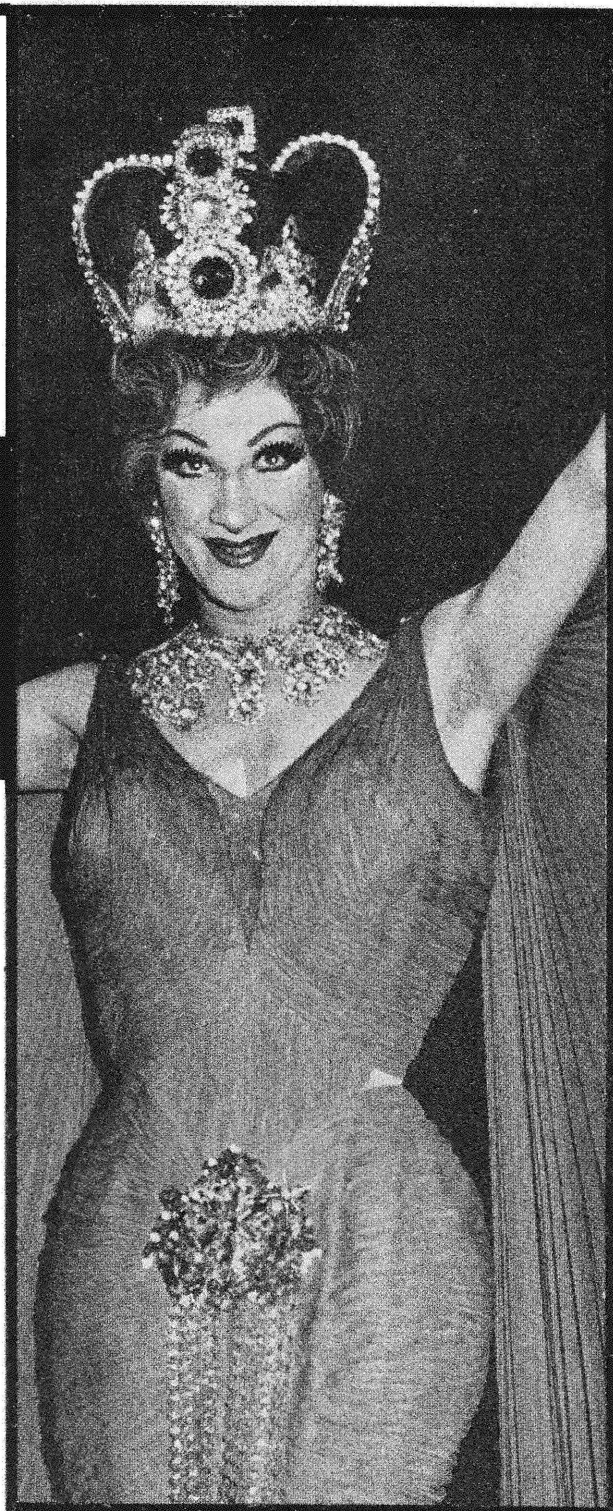

MR. PUDGY ROBERTS

Pudgy Roberts is a rarity in the field of female impersonation. You would have to call him its first activist. For in the 15 years Pudgy has been entertaining, he has become the leading spokesman for the entire world of mimicry. As a matter of fact, he is the only one.

Pudgy explains his own brand of aggressiveness by saying, "I don't like waiting for things to happen. I enjoy seeing them get done."

That is why, besides performing, Pudgy keeps busy at writing, at artwork and inventing devices to aid the profession — such as his artificial bust which is literally lifelike.

Among Pudgy's "first" are: the first impersonator to write a coast-to-coast column. The first female mimic to be featured in burlesque. First female impersonator to appear on the Johnny Carson and David Frost shows. He was also the first to write a Pudgy Roberts travels a versatile road in his quest for perfection in the art of female impersonation. Above he's seen in one of his most glamorous costumes. And on the opposite page Pudgy dresses magnificently as he etches a comedy portrait.

"how-to-do-it" book on impersonation. He has edited several magazines and his present post as New York Editor of F. I. NEWS gives him the opportunity to utilize his experience and accomplish his boundless ambitions for the publication.

Despite his name, Pudgy is as slim as a rail and, in his horn-rimmed glasses, looks very much like the young and handsome Harold Lloyd. And evidently, like Lloyd, he is an inventive, creative man. He was chubby as a youngster, was nicknamed Pudgy, and allowed it to stick because it was "different."

He wasn't a success his first time out and the club manager warned him either to polish up his act or risk being canned at the end of his first week's engagement. Pudgy determinedly went to work and changed his style.

"I knew I could do a pretty glamorous job as a pretty stripper," he said, "but I felt that perhaps I could do it all better comically. With the help of a few female impersonators — they're not jealous of comics — I worked up a fully professional act and stayed at the club for six months."

It all went uphill fast. Pudgy enjoys doing glamorous ladies, but he recognizes that his forte is comedy — especially when it comes to stripping.

"Too many impersonators try stripping, and most of them are pretty bad. The first thing a potential mimic wants to do is show off his body — which seems pretty silly when the audience has come to see the costumes and enjoy the act of female mimicry. Another handicap they work under is that so few of them are accomplished dancers."

PRETTIEST BOYS IN TOWN

Down in Atlantic City awhile back, Arthur's Hialeah Club featured a show called "Fagala Follies." The entertainers were billed as "the prettiest boys in town." In this respect the claim was right on the beam. The cast had all the beauties, including Bobbi James (Mr. Beautiful), Gayle Channing, Jackie Jordan (Mr. Gorgeous), Rene Walker and Eric Todd as the male lead would qualify for a Mr. Handsome award anywhere.

Pantomime was the keynote of the show, with an emphasis on comedy. Rene Walker did a sexy strip and Gayle Channing's pantomime has always been notches above the average.

"Fagala Follies" later went on to offer a few production numbers, making it even more delightful. But it was lots of fun — and certainly a delight to anyone who enjoys watching attractive female impersonation.

Gayle Channing, one of the stars of "Fagala Follies" who lived up to the billing, "the prettiest boys in town."

Rene Walker was the pulchritudinous stripper of the show. "She" does a mean job when it comes to tossing bumps and grinds. Besides the physical equipment for stripping, Rene's got the gowns.

LEST WE FORGET . . .

FEMME JESTERS

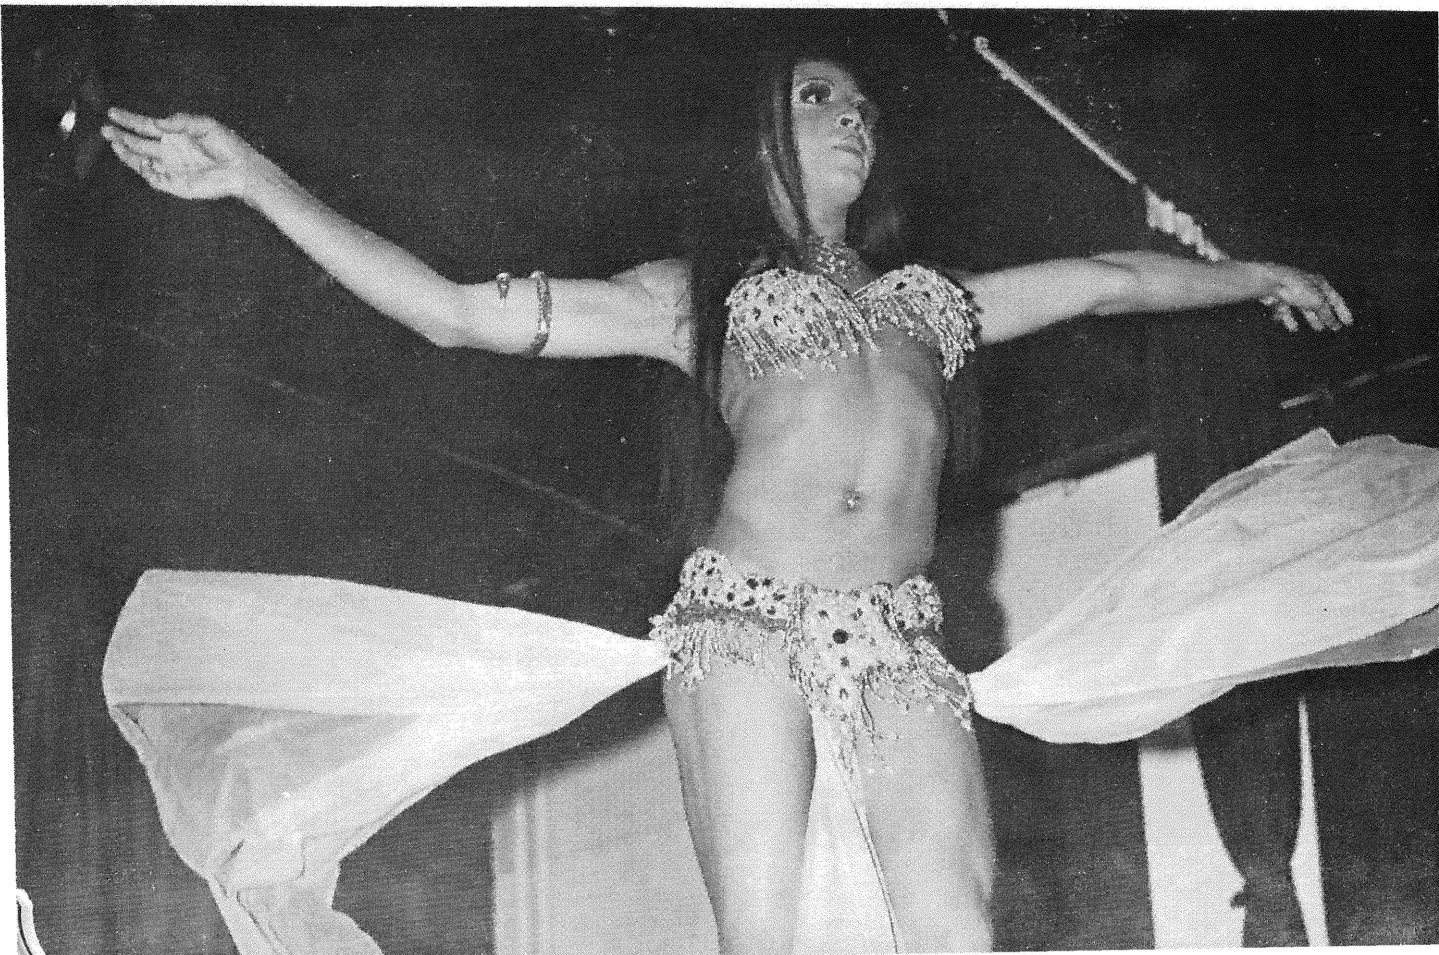

There's a common misconception that drag acts appearing in revues are always at one another's throats. Not quite so, we discovered, when we caught "The Femme Jesters" in their pantomime show, "Broadway Fantasy #2,," which recently concluded a Standing Room Only engagement in Atlantic City at the Chez Paree, located at New York Avenue and the Boardwalk. "Fantasy" ran exactly ten fun-filled weeks, featuring beautifully staged production numbers and the considerable talents of Dick "Dee" Connors, Emore and Selena Powers.

They worked harmoniously together in a show that was fun, fast and easy to watch. Audiences returning for more discovered how cleverly they varied their material and costumes. Dee Connors went from a frilly, saucy boa and little else but net stockings to a stately (but sexy) black evening gown as she sang, using a hand mike. The contrast from hoyden to grand lady was enchanting.

Emore, black and beautiful, was the triple-threat artist of the show — a guy who can turn his talents from sultry sophistication to primitive routines. He posses an animal magnetism that is thrilling.

Selena Powers worked in a variety of wigs, showing her versatility as she switched back and forth between tantalizing songstress to swinging comedienne. As Barbra Streisand she brought down the house.

Emore, black and beautiful, proved a triple threat in sheer white nylon, sinful black velvet and sensational baubles and beads. She was the essence of cold, exotic, sophisticated beauty which she turned off abruptly ly and dramatically to become a gorgeous jungle cat with Lena Horne-type intensity. She topped her act with a seven-veil "cootch" number which would have been the envy of any of the great ladies of burlesque.

At the end, all three appeared together as "Dolly" to standing applause.

The secret of their success is cooperation — not competition. The three members of the show shared in everything that goes into producing the act — from wardrobe to props and material. And the male performers, Ronnie Salem and Brian Andrews are part of the gang, too.

"It's so simple," Dee explained. "We love our work and our audiences love us. That's what counts."

Dick Conners and Selena Powers blend exactly the right comedy ingredients when it comes to the giddy ballet parts of their well-loved show, "Broadway Fantasy #2."

BOBBIE

³NEW JERSEY 2272. HI! I'm Bobbie. I'm 24 & have modeled in F. I. NEWS. I love to dress as a sexy blonde & like to meet with other young TVs, males & females for fun & fantasies. Phone & photo & SASE.

Bobbie Kenner is one of New York City's sexiest female impersonators, as these photographs will "bare" out. Although he has done some professional performing as an impersonator, Bobbie prefers posing as a model for TV publications. When he working at modeling, he likes to look and feel as feminine as possible. He shaves off all his body hair, including his pubic hair, which he says makes him look and feel like a naughty little girl.

Bobbie has been crossdressing since he was five years old. At that time in his life, his mother had decided she would rather have a pretty little girl instead of a girlish-looking boy. Bobbie was dressed in pretty little party dresses and pink silky undies. He didn't mind at all. In fact he preferred soft dresses and undies to rough boys' clothing any day.

In college, Bobbie studied hard during the day, but at night he would take off his male clothes and transform himself into the sexy-looking female chick that all TV lovers would want to go to bed with. While making love, Bobbie becomes very feminine and submissive and is willing to do anything to please her man. This usually results in Bobbie getting his little bottom bugged, but he says he loves it and it makes him feel even more feminine. If there are no men around for awhile, she likes to keep her bottom in shape and self-indulges in banana therapy exercise which helps keep her anus soft and supple.

To help keep his weight in line with other girls his age, Bobbie eats only fruits and vegetables — no meats or starchy food. He does a lot of sit ups to keep his tummy flat. The 5'8" boy weighs 135 lbs and finds that is his best weight for dressing.

He enjoys disco dancing and suntanning in two-piece suits. He hopes to continue with his female impersonation for the rest of his life.

LAURA LEE — ILL 2692.

ILLINOIS 2692. Lovely, submissive, sexy, bi-sexual TV, 26, 5'5'', 108 lbs., eager to meet or correspond with other TVs for lots of fun. Enjoy going out on dates, have extensive feminine wardrobe & pass well. Love all kinds of sex & mild B&D. Can relocate.

Dear Editor:

It has been a long time since my last letter to you. I have been reading F. I. NEWS for years now and enjoy it immensely. I have run two ads at various times and had good results.

I have been busy these past months, traveling on business, and have not really been enjoying my TV desires because I travel so much it is hard to meet people and to know where to go in strange towns.

I enjoy going out dressed and having dates with fun people. I am at the point now where I have decided to explore and fulfill all of my TV desires and not push them aside. I enjoy being a TV and I love to wear all things feminine. I truly enjoy being a "feminine girl."

I want very much to find someone special who will treat me like a lady and love me like a lady. I want to make someone happy and share my love and tenderness with someone special. Now the task is to find that special person. I am willing to move and relocate myself for the right situation.

I have always been extremely thankful for my petite size, 5'5" tall, 112 lbs. It has helped me immensely with my feminine image.

I am hopeful I will be able to find someone who I can give my love to. I am very open-minded and enjoy all kinds of sex, french, greek, you name it. I am also willing to submit to B&D for the right person/persons.

So you see I am generally open to about everything. I am intelligent, loving, attractive (?), so what is my problem?

As I said, I have been contemplating running an ad, but have held off doing so until I get my latest set of photos back.

In my many years of reading F. I. NEWS, I always enjoyed "My Thing" and "TV Pin-Up of the Month," or F. I. of the Month as well as those photo spreads that you do. However, the last several issues have not had any of these features except "My Thing." I am wondering if it is because you have just decided to no longer do this or because there are just no submittals.

Well, I have enclosed several photos of myself for you to consider publishing, and for your consideration as F. I. of the Month. I would be deeply honored to have this bestowed on me. It would really make me feel special and very feminine. It would also let me know if other people think I'm attractive and sexy. If you are not interested in using the photos, please send them back. If you are, please use as many as you wish. I will leave it up to you which ones you decide to print. I am hopeful that if you do a layout, that many people will want to contact me. I have my fingers crossed for that.

Perhaps I should enclose the ad I was going to send in and you could run it with the photo set? I know that the ads I ran in the past always appeared in several issues of F. I. NEWS and your other publications.

Lots of love to you all, LAURA LEE

THE BLOND

By Yvonne Blake

It was Friday evening and the streets were crowded with people getting a head start on their weekend. An attractive blond in a green dress, white high heels, and carrying a white purse, entered the "Brass Rail." As she walked the length of the bar, heads turned. One young man at the end of the bar got off his stool and offered it to her. She thanked him, but declined. She preferred a small table in a corner near the ladies' room.

As the waitress left her table with her drink order, the blond crossed her legs, giving anyone who was looking an exciting peak at her shapely, nylon-clad legs. She drank her drink alone and in silence, then ordered another. Finishing it she got up to leave.

"Why don't you stay for the dance?" the young man asked.

Very politely she said that she couldn't, smiled, and walked out, hips swinging provocatively. Two blocks away was a theatre that showed only "X" rated movies. She stopped at the ticket window, purchased a ticket and entered. The movie was typical. If you've seen one, you've seen them all. Girls and boys eating, sucking and fucking. This one had a little story to it — very little. Then came a scene where a heavily hung young man with an enormous erection was approaching a girl from behind. Her dialogue was: "Come on, stud, fuck me in the ass," Which he did. As they huge "pole" slid in and out of the girl's rear, on the screen, a voice behind the blond whispered in her ear:

"I'd sure like to be doing that to you," it said.

She turned to look into the face of the young man from the bar.

"Persistent, aren't you?" she said, more than asked.

"Anyone as pretty as you deserves attention," he said. "Anyone as pretty as you that comes to a movie like this deserves a lot of attention."

"Think you can handle it?" she asked, without expression.

"Think! Beautiful, I know," he boasted.

Starting to leave, she asked, "Your place or mine?"

He was right behind her. On the street they linked arms and walked back toward the "Brass Rail." As they drew near, he asked if they could stop for just one drink. He wanted his friends to see him with a classy, good-looking chick.

"It's your money," she sighed, and they entered.

There were two empty stools at the bar and they took them. Some of his friends teased him. One giant of a man came up behind them, placed a big, beefy hand on each of their shoulders and drawled:

"Son, if you get into this doll, she's either drunk, stupid or hard up."

Before he could draw a breath, the blond turned and brought a chopping blow to the bridge of his nose. Blood gushed from his nostrils, his eyes became glassy and he sank to his knees in slow motion. The blond turned to another who seemed to be his buddy.

"Get him out of here," she said quietly.

"Hey, lady!" the man exclaimed. "You could have killed him that way!"

"Yes," she smiled rather wickedly, "and if he isn't careful of what he says around ladies the next time, I might — I just might."

Once inside her apartment the young man spoke.

"I never saw anyone do that before, especially a lady."

"What makes you think I'm a lady?" she asked.

"Well, you look like one, you talk like one and, except for that judo chop, you act like one. What's your name anyway?" He just then realized that he didn't know what to call her.

"Call me Yvonne," she said. "Now, excuse me a moment. There are drinks on the side board."

He fixed himself a drink and called to her.

"I'm Tom. Can I fix you a drink?"

"Later," she replied simply.

When she returned, she wore black satin slippers with fur trim and high heels and a black satin robe with gold, oriental designs that came to just below her hips. Tying at the waist, it accentuated her hips and breasts.

"Ready for a drink?" he asked.

"Later," she said, sitting demurely on the velvet sofa. "First let's talk a bit. What to you expect here? What is it you want?"

That caught him off guard and he couldn't reply before she spoke again.

"Do you think I'll suck your cock half way down my throat like the girl in the movie did? Maybe you expect me to bare my bottom so you can ram your pole up my rear end. Is that it?" Still not giving him a chance to reply, she said: "Maybe you just expect me to lie back, spread my legs and say here it is, help yourself."

"Hey! Maybe I'd better go," he said nervously, setting his drink down.

"Not at all," she said, still without expression. "But what's in it for me besides a load or two of your cum, exercise, and maybe a mess to clean up?"

"What do you want?" he asked hesitantly.

"I'll decide later," she told him. "For a start, come over here and drop your pants."

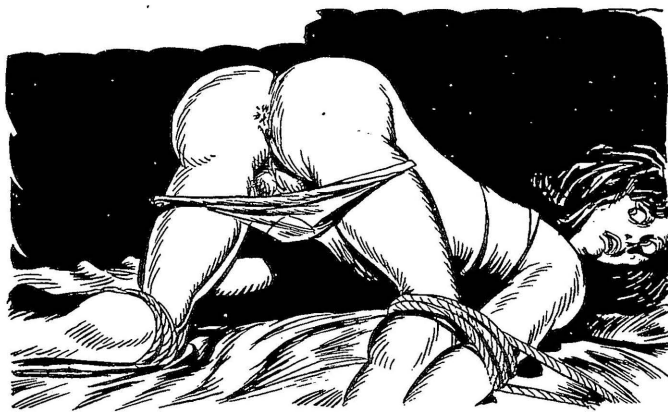

Without warning she took hold of his penis and testicles with both hands and began to fondle and caress them. She sucked his full length into her mouth and down into her throat. He had never been that deep in anyone's mouth before. Her tongue, lips and throat muscles drove him wild. Soon he came. She swallowed each spurt quickly, as it came. When he was sucked dry and limp, she released him and leaned back on the sofa. He was stunned. Once he regained his composure, he reached for her, for her breasts. She slapped his hand away.

"You touch only what I tell you to touch, when I tell you," she snapped.

He drew back quickly. She allowed him to sit on the floor in front of her. Reaching down, she again began to tease his penis with her fingers.

"Stand up," she ordered. He obeyed. She grasped his penis with her hand and began a slow, masturbating motion. The index finger of her other hand sought his anus. The long polished fingernail scratched as she pushed it into his rectum. Soon he was hard and throbbing again.

She instructed him to lie on the floor. She raised her short robe and straddled his body with her back to him. She reached down between her legs and behind her and guided his stiff penis through the opening of her crotchless pantyhose and to her anus.

"Now you can fuck my ass," she said crudely. "The only difference is I'll be in charge. I'll say how deep you go and how long you stay in there."

With that she pushed down with her hips and felt his penis spread her sphincter muscle. Slowly she lowered herself until he was in as far as his length would allow. When finally he came, deep within her rectum, and she had worked him dry, she raised enough for his limp penis to slip out.

"Now it's my turn," she said quietly.

"Baby, after that, anything you want! Anything I've got is yours!" he panted. "I've got a hundred bucks in my pocket. It's all yours!"

"Nothing so crude," she said as she turned to face him and sat lightly on his chest.

"Well, what then?" he asked.

This." She reached between her legs, through the opening of her crotchless pantyhose. "Suck on this." And she withdrew a large, but limp penis. He was so shocked that he couldn't protest as the blond's penis was placed at his lips. There was nothing he could do but open his mouth and accept it.

To: The best TV publication I have seen in my TV years (about 35).

Enclosed is an ad I saw in the personal column of a local newspaper in Connecticut which I thought was very beautiful and complete and to the point without being trashy. I answered it, but never got an answer. I thought I would pass it on to you for possible publication in one of your mags or newspapers. It reads as follows:

"I am a transvestite who loves living in a woman's world. I thoroughly enjoy living in the girl's role — the soft smiles, the gentle glances, the touch of whispering silk, the smell of haunting perfumes, the glamour of exotic cosmetics, the sensuous feel of dainty lingerie, the admiring stares or glaring jealousy of other women, but most of all the total leer of possible seduction my men.

Sandy

"I am an attractive, slender, elegantly dressed blonde TV who would like to meet that special person, male or female, to explore the possibility of a loving, caring, cuddling, laughing relationship, to reach out and touch the hand that is extended to me. Sincerity and trust will be mutual and total worship — adoration of each shall bond the affair. All gentle and understanding persons please respond."

This person has a beautiful personality as can be seen in her creative plea. I hope if you publish this that she will see it and try to meet me. She will recognize my name as below. This ad really turned me on!!

WE GET LETTERS !!

Our readers are invited to send in letters — especially with photographs.

Dear Editor:

I've followed Neptune's publications religiously as well as sexually for about ten years and have enjoyed every issue. Thought you might enjoy a story and photo of me, Judy, and my lady friend, Yvette, a very understanding lady indeed as you'll see.

The enclosed photo of us was taken just before attending a Halloween party. We are dressed as twins. We were equals then, but when the discussion took place as to what to wear at the Halloween party in Hollywood, we were undecided as to Yvette's costume. Of course, I would go as sexy Judy, as I do every year. But my dominant mate came up with an idea. she would go as my pimp and I as her whore.

Yvette dressed as "Jimmy the pimp," and I as "Judy the whore." What a pair we were! Won first prize and what a time we had!

At the party I was happily dancing with this tall, black, handsome man dressed as a devil — and wow, was he a devil. His hands were all over my sensuous body and I love it as I felt his manhood pressing against me. Wow, was I hot!

After the dance, darned if he didn't go to my pimp and ask how much. She (or he) said: "Oh, she's a cheap whore. How about $2.00 for an expert blow job?"

I was led into one of the bedrooms, keeping ahead of Jimmy's little hand whip which kept stinging my sexy and hot ass. My pimp removed the guy's large, beautiful, black cock from his pants and fed it to me. I sucked and sucked like a good whore should while his two fingers were deep inside my pussy hole — after he had lowered my pink lacy panties. It wasn't long before he exploded with a tremendous amount of hot cum into my waiting mouth. I didn't realize a crowd had gathered and were watching until we received a hand for our performance. I had to immediately pull my panties up in place in order to catch my load of hot juice. I was whipped for cumming, because my pimp said the pleasure was to be my customer's, not mine.

When she asked "John" for the $2.00, he handed her a one dollar bill and realized he was nearly broke except for some change. He did cum up with another 98c. I felt humiliated — only worth $1.98?

In the meantime — I love you all.

Lotsa love, JUDY & JIMMY

Dear Editor:

I just finished reading my latest issue of F. I. NEWS and I feel like expressing my thoughts. It is really nice to be able to tell your innermost feelings without being ridiculed or found out by your friends. So here goes.

I am 26 years old, married to a wonderful, understanding (to a point) woman and have a beautiful 7-year-old daughter.

I have been crossdressing for as long as I can remember. I can recall wearing my older sister's lacy panties in grade school. I graduated to my mother's closets and "drawers" and rummaged through every woman's closet when we would visit. I never got caught in the act, but had some close calls.

I was totally ignorant as to the reason for my actions and really quite confused. Once I even exposed myself to my sister while I was wearing her bra and panties when we were home alone. She laughed and made a joke out of it, but left me with the impression it had better not happen again. But it did.

I got married at the age of 18 and the second day after the ceremony I was trying on my wife's undies. She had some very sexy things that I had never seen before. I even put my clean underwear in the hamper and asked her what I should wear. Of course, she said to wear a pair of hers, no one would know. I guess you know I picked a pair of the laciest bikini panties she had.

That didn't last very long and I became frustrated for the want of someone with whom to share my secret. My actions almost drove my wife crazy. I would put on her garterbelt and nylons, bra, panties and slip, then jump in bed and make her "ball" me. It flipped her out completely. We have separated 10 times in our first four years of married life.

Then one day a friend of ours gave us some "speed." We had just started smoking pot and I didn't even know what speed was. Anyway we took it and it enabled us to understand each other almost completely. She finally realized there was no harm in crossdressing and I found a way to tell her how I felt. While we talked, we experimented as I put on my intimate apparel slowly, piece by piece. It was wonderful. We have finally reached the stage where I have my own wardrobe, makeup, jewelry and more undies than she has.

We sit and play cards with me dressed to the hilt. She has even gone out in public with me as Rona, and that's amazing because I am 5'11" tall and weigh over 200 lbs. with a muscular body and broad shoulders. She has bought me some very nice clothes and helped me feminize myself so that I can pass in public.

It is so nice to have help, understanding and love all at once. Well, it's my turn to do the dishes, although I hate to quit writing. Keep up the good work on your fabulous and informative magazine.

Forever happy, RONA NOREEN

P.S.: I do not advocate the use of drugs for others. It is a personal choice.

Dear Editor:

I am a pre-op transsexual and being a pre-op leads to some unhappy situations. Like the other night, I was in a bar with my roommate, Rose, when this living doll came over to our table and asked me to dance with him.

As soon as he took me into his arms, I went limp with my desire for him. As we danced, I could feel his big rock hard cock pressed against my body and I almost passed out when he whispered in my ear that he would like me to go to bed with him.

God, how I wanted to have his meat buried in my warm body, but I knew this couldn't be because I have not had the operation yet. I shouldn't tell him I didn't have the pussy he wanted so much because no one in this bar knew I am a TS and I go there often.

My mental torment got even worse as the evening wore on. My roommate left with someone she met and I was left alone with my dream man.

When the bar closed, he walked me to my car and took me into his arms and kissed me good-night after I had opened the door. My desire overcame me and I pulled him into the car with me. I kissed him again hard and ran my hand down between his legs and wrapped my fingers around his cock.

While we were still kissing, I opened his pants and took his cock out. My heart pounded as I dropped down and wrapped my lips around his lovely tool. As my tongue tasted his flesh, I could think of nothing else except having this cock giving me the fucking I had waited for all this time.

Oh, how I wanted to wrap my legs around his body and have him screw me, pushing it in and pulling it out until we both exploded with joy. I sucked his cock and licked his balls and I hoped he wouldn't come because I didn't want to stop.

When he did come, I didn't miss a drop. It was so warm and sweet I wished there was much more of it. He took me in his arms again and kissed me and I knew he was saying good-bye. On the way home, I was thinking maybe the next time I see him my surgery will be over with and I will be able to have him shoot his load in my pussy.

Thanks a load, ASS-NONYMUS

Dear Editor:

Never have I ever been prouder of F. I. NEWS, combined with the good feeling that I, as a white girl, am a part of it. I'm referring, of course, to the latest issue, within which you have come out so strongly for crossing the color lines. I think, singularly, it is the most important as well as exciting step forward we could have taken.

What greater opportunity could we girls have but to offer our white bodies to these beautiful black men, partially as an offer of apology for the prejudice that they have suffered.

I am proud that I have been "excitingly used" by many gorgeous black daddies, but I do not believe within myself that I have been used, because I understand that among themselves they are not as selfish as some of us white girls are. And when one of my black lovers offers me to a friend to satisfy his frustrated hard black cock, he is really following a kind of social custom of sharing. Usually they are really too much as they skillfully blend physical love with raw, animal sex. I love them all.

Still blushinglly yours, KERCHIE

"There are the wonderers, but the knowers know best," is an old saying. The wonderers that I know in prison, as well as in society, see homosexuality as a sickness. That's because they are just wondering to themselves just what gets into a man that makes him be attracted to another man. Society labels a lot of things that they themselves don't comprehend. I would classify that as a sickness, because if you don't know about a thing, why label it?

As a knower, not a wonderer, I have fallen in and out of love with homosexuals. They make me feel better than any woman I ever went to bed with. Women don't know how to suck a man's dick, or take a man dick in the ass and milk it like it has never been milked before.

I have needs and wants. I have been lonely and I have looked for sex and understanding. All these things I have found in my own sex. My mind is more open to my own sex than society will ever be, because I have lived with men. I have loved my own sex, I believe in my own sex. I respect my own sex. There is nothing unnatural about what a man wants to be or thinks he is. It is society that sees what they feel is wrong.

To all you readers who wish to write to me, please feel free to do so. Here is my name and address:

Dear Editor:

I had an experience last Saturday which was so strange that I simply HAVE to share it. I give it word-for-word, the full truth.

I called one of the Open List numbers and talked to a TV Sister named Dawn. She was a very warm, loving girl and said to come right over, giving me the directions to her house in Detroit.

I quickly dressed in my newest and tightest slacks, over pink lace panties, garters and hose. My push-up bra and some extra padding made my little titties really bulge and a low-cut blouse exposed lots of cleavage. My dark maroon pumps and a matching purse completed my dress. I used light-colored makeup, but in a slutty hooker style and topped it all off with my Farrah-style wig and hoop earrings.

When I reached Detroit (where Dawn's house is), it was already quite late. I drove up and down the street where I felt her house must be, but it was too dark to see the houses clearly. I parked in a restaurant lot and started walking up and down the street, searching the houses for one with a description that fit dawn's.

After I had walked the length of the street, I paused at the corner against a lamp-post thinking what to do next. Just then a city police cruiser passed by and then quickly spun around and pulled up beside me. The officer on the passenger side called to me.

Miss, would you please come over here?"

When I'd gotten to the car, he added: "Are you having trouble?"

I said, "It's not miss — but I am having trouble." They told me to get into the car and then asked me, "What the hell are you doing?" I told them the story and they said, "All right, but you'd better get off the streets."

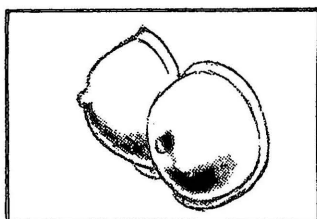

I asked if it was OK to keep driving around, looking for the house, and the driver said, "Sure. We wouldn't have stopped you, but he thought you were a prostitute . . . Are you?" I assured them I wasn't and left.

The next block down, I saw a house I thought might be Dawn's. I pulled into the driveway and found it wasn't hers. As I backed out, I ran right into a ditch. I was stuck fast.

I rocked the car, put dirt under the tires, and then cried until midnight. Then I started trying to flag down help. At one o'clock a red blazer stopped and the man yelled out, "Want me to pull you out?" I said yes, and got the car started while he hooked up the chains and pulled me out with no trouble.

When I went up to his car to thank him, I was shocked to find it was the police officer who had driven the car earlier. He said he had come by hoping I'd still be around, and asked if I'd like to have a bite to eat in a restaurant, since I'd been looking for Dawn all night and he'd just gotten off from work. Neither of us had eaten. I immediately said "Yes!" and after a quick snack at a diner he took me home for the main course.

He is very sweet, sincere and straight. He said he'd fallen for me when he thought I was a whore, and was still attracted to me. I knew he respected me as a woman and I loved him accordingly, with a long blow job and much use of my tight male pussy.

It was wonderful, and I hope to see him many times again. Also, I would like to apologize to Dawn for not making it to her house, but I'm sure she'll understand.

Love to you all, CINDY LEIGH

Dear Editor:

I am writing to you to thank you for publishing the magazine, THE FEMALE IMPERSONATOR. It is the first publication of this type I have ever seen or read. It brought to me the knowledge that I'm not alone in the way I feel about dressing in women's clothes.

I've always wanted to meet someone like me. This magazine has given me the strength and inspiration to place an ad in your publication, TV SWINGERS. I am submitting this ad in hopes I can actually meet someone else who likes to crossdress and help me possibly to come out of the closet, as they say.

I have been a transvestite almost all of my life. I've always been fascinated by the beauty of lace panties and how nice they felt when I had the chance finally to wear them and how comfy. Women's clothes are fabulous and how beautiful they make me feel.

Thank you again for this magazine. It has given me new hope.

A faithful TV, BOBBIE

Dear Editor:

This is just a thank-you note to three of the TVs who appeared in the SHEMALE TV MAID issue. I thought the first two maids shown and the maid who posed for the centerfold shot were among the most striking expositions of transvestite perfection I've ever seen.

If you people at Neptune aren't too busy, please pass along my thanks and admiration to them for their superb appearances.
